

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT.

VOL. XXXVII

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1913.

8 Pages

No. 34

ONLY DEATH IN SIXTY-FIVE YEARS

Mrs. Marshall Dies At Home Near Hardinsburg--Was An Interesting Woman And Mother--Leaves Nine Children.

DEATH OCCURS FRIDAY

Mrs. Artimisa Marshall, wife of J. S. Marshall, deceased, died at the home of her son-in-law, Eli Board, near Hardinsburg, Mrs. Marshall was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne. She was born December 18, 1844, and died February 21, 1913, in her sixty-eighth year. She was married to Mr. Marshall July 22, 1863.

Mrs. Marshall was an interesting woman and a devoted mother of thirteen children, nine of whom are living. They are: Mrs. J. B. Gibson, Mrs. Abe Dowell, Mrs. Ida Board, Sam, Will, Humphrey, Robert, Sylvester and John Marshall. Besides there are eighteen living grand-children. She had a large family connection on her side, and a remarkable fact is that her death is the first one in her family for sixty-five years, notwithstanding, she was one of twelve children. The ages of her brothers and sisters run from forty-nine to seventy-four years.

Mrs. Marshall was a member of the Methodist church forty years. Her funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. M. L. Dyer assisted by F. R. Robertson. She was buried at her homeplace.

Fine Time Monday Night.

The Rev. Mr. Cottrell and Mrs. Cottrell were host and hostess Monday night to the young people of the Baptist church. A delightful evening was spent with an interesting program from start to finish. One of the features was an imitation of a graphophone by the church choir. They stood behind a curtain on which was painted a picture of music and their voices came through the big black notes. Those who sang were: Misses Claudia Pate and Ray Heyser, Miss Cleona Weatherholt and Mrs. Keith, Messrs. Wave Roff and Adis Kramer, Prof. McCoy and Proctor Keith. After a funny song or two that set the crowd in a hilarious laughter a parody on the Cottrells was sung. Fruit punch and cakes were served.

League Entertained.

The Epworth League social last Thursday night in honor of George Washington's birthday was a wonderful success, fifty guests being present and many were costumed in Colonial style. Ice cream with cherries and cakes with a little flag in each one were the refreshments. Among those present were: Misses Burn, Eloise Nolte, Eldred Babbage, Chas. Fallon, Marion Denton, Martha Miller, Misses Sawyer, Pauline Moorman, Misses McGavock, Dwight Randall, Misses Smith, Rosa Sipple, Mrs. J. A. Ross, Frank Moorman, Andrew Ashby, Lula Severs, Hovie Wardrip, Prof. and Mrs. McCoy, Lillian Smith, Marcus and Joseph Miller, Pather Pate, Mike Tucker, Mrs. Geff, Earl Bohler, Randall and Joe Ross, Fred Adams, Rev. and Mrs. Walker, Misses Weatherholt, Misses Wroe, Susie Newton, Wilbur Chapin, Norman Gregory, Mrs. Benton Eubanks, Ray Lewis Heyser, Walter Hawkins, Mrs. F. M. Smith, Mrs. Duncan, Miss Ditto, Forrie Hardin, William White, Claudia Pate and others called during the reception.

Popular Young Girls Here.

Miss Louise Lewis and Miss Margaret Flemister, of Fordsville, returned home Monday afternoon after a delightful visit to Miss Isabelle Burn. They were the guests of honor at a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of their hostess, and Saturday night Miss Dona Ross gave a charming party in compliment to them.

Sunday School Institute.

There will be a Sunday School Institute at Hardinsburg March 21, 22 and 23. Mr. George A. Joplin and Miss Maude Dance will have charge. President Henderson is anxious for the officers and teachers of all the Sunday Schools to attend.

Go to Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rather, (nee Etta Rather), who have been visiting Dock Emire, Ekron, and Mrs. Lee Morgan, Hardinsburg, for a few weeks, left today for their home in Steward county, Kas.

"To The Democrats Of Breckenridge County."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Foote are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine boy. Three families of the Foote name have been made happy with a little Democratic voter in each home during the last three weeks and there was not a suffragette among them—all three boys!

James H. Bassett Dead.

Leitchfield, Ky., Feb. 24.—James H. Bassett, aged eighty-five years, died at his home in this county of senility. Mr. Bassett was one of the best known farmers in this county, and is survived by a number of children, including Mrs. F. R. Dent, Mrs. May F. Kinney, Mrs. Julia B. Chick and Mrs. W. F. Gregory, of Louisville. Two sons, Frank Bassett and Lieut. Col. Bassett, reside in Hopkinsville, and two other sons, Edwin and R. J. Bassett, reside in this county.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Home Burns Friday.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Noel burned Friday about noon. Most of their furniture was saved, but there was no insurance on the house. They are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ross, and as yet, have not decided on any plans for their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Noel are among the oldest people of the town and their misfortune is regretted.

Brings Good Price.

Harry Bell, of Irvington, sold a two year old steer last week for $73. It weighed 1,000 pounds.

MRS. ALVIN SIMONS

Dies in Denver, Col.--Went West to Regain Health and Meets Death--No Particulars Are Yet Learned--Good Woman Gone.

Telegrams were received here last week by relatives announcing the death of Mrs. Alvin Simons which occurred at their home at 2737 Clay street, Denver, Colorado. Particulars have not been received.

Mrs. Simons had been ill of tuberculosis for several months, and last summer Mr. Simons took her to Colorado, thinking the climate would benefit her. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Cissell, and one son, Henry May. Mrs. G. W. Roth, of Morgantown, Ind.; Mrs. Ike Meyer, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Henry Solbrig, and Messrs. Owen, Raymond and Henry May are her brothers and sisters. Besides these, Mrs. Simons had old and good friends in Cloverport. She is remembered as one who got joy out of serving others, giving them encouragement and helping all in the struggles for right against wrong. She had ambitions and great desires for her home and her church, the Lucile Memorial, and the day was never too long to tire her in working for both. Word of the death of Ella May Simons brings back kind memories of her life in her native town.

Mr. Sadenwater Has

Nice Patronage

F. C. Sadenwater, who has a tonorial parlor at the county seat, enjoyed a fine patronage during circuit court. Mr. Sadenwater's patrons among the traveling men are always pleased to strike Hardinsburg where they can get his service.

Changes Florida Address.

Dear Mr. Babbage:—Please send our Breckenridge News to West Palm Beach, Florida, until further notice. We are having a delightful time. Weather is like May time and the country is beautiful. Yours truly, Julius Sippel.

Buys Automobile.

I. B. Richardson, the king merchant of Garfield, has bought an automobile. Mr. Richardson has a year's contract for advertising space in The Breckenridge News, and he is working for a big business as well as a good time in his machine.

To the Democrats of Breckenridge County:

I am a candidate for Representative subject to your action at the coming August Primary.

For the past six years I have been teaching school in the rural districts of my county. I know the needs of the farmer and believe that his interests should have preference over all other interests.

I am opposed to the making of large and useless appropriations and the creating of new offices so often unnecessary.

I am young and my future is before me. Is it not better to trust this important part to a young man who desires to accomplish something in life than to one whose future is well spent?

If favored with this nomination, and my election should follow in November, I shall represent the masses and not the classes.

I ask your earnest consideration, assuring you that if nominated, I will make every honorable effort possible to elect the entire ticket in November.

Yours for a square deal and victory in November,

Moorman Ditto

To the Democrats of the Tenth Senatorial District.

I am a candidate for the State Senate, subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held on August 2, 1913. I respectfully solicit the support of the voters of Meade, Hancock and Breckenridge counties.

I have been a Democrat all my life; have contributed a great deal of my time and what money I was able to the service, and have never before sought

To the Democrats of Breckenridge County.

Being truly grateful to those who so loyally supported me in my candidacy four years ago, and now yielding to the many solicitations of my political friends from various parts of the county, I have decided to again become a candidate for the office of Superintendent of the Public Schools of Breckenridge county and my formal announcement will follow in due time. J. W. Trent. Custer, Ky., Feb. 24, 1913.

New Tax Receipt.

The State Auditor is preparing to get out the blank tax receipts for every county in the State as provided for by the law passed by the Legislature last winter. These tax receipts with stubs attached in book form will be sent to every county clerk and he will fill out each blank giving the name of the taxpayer and the amount of taxes due, and turn the book over to the sheriff for collection. In this way every tax receipt will be uniform in every county. The sheriff must sign the receipt when the taxes are paid and the book will show exact amount collected. There will be more than a million of these receipts and the Auditor expects to have them in the hands of the county clerks by February 10, and no other form of tax receipt will be valid after that date. —Hancock Clarion

Joseph Ballman First

Boy To Win Prize

I knew there was talent in the boys of our school, and by pursuing the old time rule of try, try again, have succeeded in finding an ad writer in the person of Master Joseph H. Ballman, who this week wrote the best advertisement and won the prize of one dollar. Again the girls did well and were close after you, Joseph. The ad appears in this issue and reflects much credit on the writer, and should he follow this line of work, no doubt he will some day rank high among the ad writers.

Respectfully,
Marion Weatherholt.

UP-TO-DATE SHOPPING

(Copyright) Suburbanites Consider Parcel Post as a Species of Paternalistic, Sublimated Messenger Service.—News Item.

HOT BISCUIT,

hot cakes, made with ROYAL Baking Powder are delicious, healthful and easily made.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS

On the Henderson Route Passenger Trains a Delight to the Traveling Public and the Railroad Men--Expensive Lamps.

Those who went to Louisville Friday morning got to see the electric illumination of the day coach, notwithstanding the sun was shining bright up and down the Henderson Route. Mr. Carl Benton, conductor on the passenger 142, was so proud of the new improvement that he turned on the lights for a minute or two, so the passengers could see them.

The lights are splendidly arranged with both the single and shower lights from the ceiling of the car. A passenger could find a needle or read the finest print by them. All the day coaches will be fitted up with the same excellence to the tune of a $1,000 each. Mr. H. D. Ross has had charge of equipping the cars with the new lights, and all the work has been done at the shops in Cloverport.

CIRCUIT COURT

Notes--Many Indictments Returned--Busiest Set Of Men Around The Court House In Years.

Circuit Court adjourned last Saturday after a two weeks' session. The grand jury was the busiest body of men and did more work than any jury for years. They returned one hundred and thirty-one indictments for various offenses. Selling of cigarettes to minors constituted the majority of the indictments.

It was Judge Laymen's first court and it was conceded by the members of the bar, the juries and litigants that he presided with as much ease as an old stager. The attorneys were satisfied with his rulings and not a word of criticism was heard. They say he fills the place to the satisfaction of the entire bar. Col. Claude Mercer, the new Commonwealth's attorney, was also commended for his good work.

D. C. Walls, a young attorney who was granted license to practice law by the Oldham county bar, was on motion of Allen R. Kincheloe, was sworn in as a regular practicing attorney at this bar.

Chas. B. Fisk and Albert Lively were convicted of house breaking and sentenced to the penitentiary for one to 5 years.

Fred Davis was sent to the House of Reform for two years for having burglar tools in his possession.

Court will convene next Thursday to wind up some unfinished business.

Business For The Home-Folks.

(A Georgia Moonshiner's Gratitude to Congress.)

Here is a unique letter, found recently in a Georgia "moonshine" district:

"Dear Bill, old boy, if you could read the papers you'd know by this time what good news they've had for us recent. Congress has done gone and passed a law that'll keep other states from shippin' licker into old Georgy. That's the good news, old boy, and it done my heart good to read it. There's where we'll hit it high and hard! It means business for us home-folks, an' party soon there'll be more stills goin' to the minute than the revenoo fellers can locate in a mile. It does seem that Providence is on our side at last!" —Atlanta Constitution.

MR. HENDERSON

Calls Attention To Mountain Work Of Kentucky Sunday Schools--Mr. Vaughan Writes Of Gaining Ground.

T. B. Henderson, of Webster, president of County Sunday School Work, and Miss Alta St. Clair, secretary, sent an interesting article "Gaining Ground," by W. J. Vaughan, field worker for the Sunday schools in Kentucky.

The following paragraphs are taken from it:

"Compared with former years, the Sunday school work in Eastern Kentucky as a whole is gratifyingly prosperous."

"Every county in the mountains is now organized."

"The new Department of Temperance and Purity is a very popular movement and through it we are enlisting the best talent in the State."

"The Department of Missions is being introduced and it is proving a revelation in the communities where no work of the kind has ever been done."

Mr. Vaughan visited forty-six counties. The work that he accomplished last year is wonderful and interesting. Those who wish to read the article, should make an effort to get it, and can get it by writing to President Henderson.

Dr. Foote's Jersey Cattle Sale.

Breckenridge News, Dear Sirs:—I want to praise your office force or whoever it was that so neatly arranged the "ad" that I sent you.

As I am not familiar with newspaper parlance that would in a few words rightly express it—I'll just say that it appeared exactly as I sent it, word for word, dot for dot, nothing added, nothing left out—put in little enough space, yet quickly catches the eye of every reader. You have pleased me because the people speak of it in praise, and lastly your charge is moderate. I thank you.

And you may tell the people that I will sell even more Jerseys than I have listed to be sold, and perhaps a nice pair of 7 year old, 15 hand jack mules also, 8 months secured note is the terms and Saturday, March 1st at 1 o'clock p. m., the date. Come to my sale. See posters. Dr. P. W. Foote.

Little For the Money.

Mr. Jake Miller came in the News office Tuesday to buy a dime's worth of old newspapers. "Looks like mighty little for the money," he said as they were handed him. A smile was the answer given him. Then Mr. Miller laughed heartily and said: "I hear that, so often when people buy meat, that I have got the habit of saying 'it myself.' It is just a habit folks have—complaining at the price of things. Can't you let me have it cheaper? Is that your best price? That's awfully high isn't it? Go in the stores and you will nearly always hear a question like that, and yet a customer never doubts the honesty of his merchant."

Cleaned And Painted New.

Edward Gregory has given his wall paper shop on Elm Street a new coat of paint and cleaned it up attractively for his spring trade.

Sells Tobacco.

Alf Taylor sold his purchase of tobacco last week to John Cook, who shipped it all from Custer to Louisville. Both men made money.

Absolute and Positive Clearing Sale for 30 Days Beginning Mar. 1, 1913

We Need The Cash and Must Raise it.

And ONLY CASH or PRODUCE will buy the goods at this Slaughtering Sale. The mild winter, the big flood and the bad condition of the roads are the cause of this sale, which leaves us now with a much larger stock on hand than ever before, and as our Iron Rule is not to carry any goods over, if cut-prices will move them, we will offer for THIRTY DAYS ONLY, such bargains, that even if you don't need the goods right now, you will be inclined to buy. Our long business career here and reputation for truth and honest dealing, is the best guarantee that we mean what we advertise. Our Spring stock is ordered and we need the cash to pay for it next month as we buy only for cash. Will you help us to raise it? The prices on

Clothing, Dry Goods, Men and Ladies' Furnishing Hats, Shoes and Notions or on any article we carry in our Four Big Department Stores we offer, will talk for themselves. It would take too much space to itemize them all. Besides this great inducement we will, on all open accounts charged previous on our ledger, allow a discount of 5 per cent if paid within this 30 days. Don't miss this opportunity! Come now, while sizes and lots are complete.

W. J. SCHOPP,

Stephensport, Ky.

Sell Everything from the Cradle to the Casket

PROCEEDINGS

Of a Called Term of Fiscal Court
Held January 30, 1913.

At a called term of the Breckenridge County Fiscal Court, held at the court house in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, on the 30th day of January, for the purpose of receiving and paying for bridges constructed in said county.

Present, Hon. L. L. Waggoner, Judge of the Breckenridge County Court, presided, with the following Justices of the Peace, to-wit: G. A. Wright, G. N. Harris, B. A. Whittinghill, D. J. Quiggins and S. P. Drury.

It appearing the Breckenridge Circuit Court has passed upon the question of interest to be allowed the Vincennes Bridge Co., on its claim allowed on June 8th, 1912, which claim was for the sum of $4,702.19, it is now ordered that a voucher be issued to said company for the amount in said judgment, which is for the sum of $1,940.00 with interest from March 1, 1911; $2,250.00 with interest from June 6, 1912, to which is to be added the further sum of $173.50 included in the claim allowed on the said June 8th, 1912, making a total of $4,667.50, from which is to be deducted the sum of $3.30, the cost of said appeal, making the amount for which said voucher is to be issued the sum of $4,664.20, and upon motion of Justice G. A. Wright, seconded by Justice S. P. Drury, said order is adopted and made the order of the court.

Came the Supervisor of Roads and Bridges for Breckenridge county and submitted the following report: To the Hon. Judge and members of the Fiscal Court of Breckenridge county, Ky. Your Commissioner of Roads and Bridges would make the following report: I visited the site of the bridge across Galloway's ford, and inspected same, and would respectfully report that I found the sub and superstructure built according to specifications and contract, and built in workmanlike manner, and recommend the payment of the bridge to the Attica Bridge Company. Respectfully submitted, Pal Garper, Road and Bridge Commissioner for Breckenridge county.

Upon motion of Justice G. N. Harris, seconded by Justice Quiggins, said report was adopted and made the order of this court, and it is further ordered that the claim of said Attica Bridge

Co. for $2,500 be allowed, and that a voucher be issued for same, all of which is made the order of the court.

Upon motion of Justice B. A. Whittinghill, seconded by Justice G. A. Wright, it is ordered that $100 be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose of giving prizes to the boys of Breckenridge county, who may join a corn club. The particulars of said prizes to be arranged at the regular April term 1913, of this court, said amount to be payable out of the levy of 1913.

Minutes read and approved.
L. L. Waggoner, J. B. C.

The Best Cough Medicine.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames, of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Yelvington Man Almost Burned to Death.

While the members of the family were attending to household duties, George Rice, one of the oldest and most highly respected men of the Yelvington neighborhood, crawled from his bed and pulled a chair up to an open fireplace in his room. A four months' siege of fever had so weakened his vitality that it was with difficulty that he was able to dress.

His enjoyment at being able to leave his bed overcame him and he got up to walk about his room. Getting too near the grate, one leg of his trousers caught on fire and in a moment his body was enveloped in flames. He fell into a chair, unable to call for help, while the flames burned the lower portion of his body almost to a crisp.

The chair on which he was sitting caught fire. The flames spread to his bed. Persons passing by on the road saw smoke issuing from the upper story of the house. They quickly informed the members of the family, who rushed upstairs. Mr. Rice was lying on the floor. Practically all of his clothing was burned from his body. His feet and legs were burned to a crisp, while his face and arms were horribly blistered. He was hurriedly carried down stairs and Dr. Atchison summoned.—Owensboro Messenger.

Subscribe Now

SHOWN IN ODD ARRANGEMENT

Newest Hats Have Ostrich Feathers
In Unusual Effects, Though the Style is Certainly Chic.

Ostrich feathers are being disposed in many ways, more or less unusual, on certain of the newest hats. Sometimes they curve out quite suddenly from under the brim on one side, and in other instances they circle the crown, and then stretch out beyond the collar for quite a long distance at the back.

Yet another variety of chapeau is arranged with a soft bent crown in chiffon velvet, a broad brim of brocade, with raised designs in plush on a crepe de chine ground, and one long ostrich feather standing perfectly erect in front. These hats, with full velvet crowns and brims or brocade, look particularly smart when they are chosen in black and trimmed with ostrich feathers in some vivid shade of orange, emerald green or cerise.

Don't You Believe It.

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

LITTLE LIFTS FOR THE FARM

Fire-Proof Cement for Roof to Stop
Leaks Cannot Be Beat—Cheap
Paint for Rough Work.

For a fire proof cement for roofs mix fire clay two parts, plumbago one part, steel shavings one part, borax one part, and salt one-half part. Mix to a thick paste and use at once. For stopping leaks in any kind of a roof, except shingles, it can't be beat.

Many times the strong sun shining on a window calls for a curtain or some other shade, and in most cases there are objections to a curtain. The glass may be easily frosted by dissolving Epsom salts in beer and painting the glass with the mixture, using an ordinary paint brush. When dry, you will have the finest artificial frosting known.

To make a cheap paint for rough woodwork, take six pounds of melted pitch, one pound of pure linseed oil and one pound of yellow ochre. Mix, and if too thick add more oil. This is a very durable paint for any purpose.

To make paint for brick walls add a good lime whitewash, a small amount of sulphate of zinc and any coloring matter desired, such as red lead, yellow ochre, etc., far superior to oil paint for brick walls.

THE CLOVERPORT ICE COMPANY NOW OFFERS FOR SALE 6 Per Cent Coupon Gold Bonds Secured by a First Mortgage on Their Entire Plant

The issue of bonds is limited to $8,000.00 and is for the purpose of erecting an electric light plant in connection with the ice plant.

The value of the property behind these bonds will amount to $20,000.00 without a single debt against it.

The interest is payable semi-annually, beginning with January 1, 1913.

The company issuing these bonds is composed of the citizens of Cloverport, Ky., and Tobinsport, Ind.

These bonds are of the very best kind of an investment. Upon request further information will be gladly furnished.

THE CLOVERPORT ICE COMPANY, Cloverport, Ky.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper.

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing down feelings, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But thousands of irritable, nervous, tired and broken-down women have restored their health and strength by the use of Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

Swamp-Root brings new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of such troubles.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, may address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and receive sample bottle free by mail. You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

Go to Mattoon.

Roach James and family, Mrs. Carman and brother, Alex, all of the Garfield neighborhood, left last Thursday for Mattoon, Ill., their future home.

The March Century!

MANY SPECIAL FEATURES

Six Views of The Capitol at Washington

—ARTICLES ABOUT—

Woodrow Wilson, Grover Cleveland and Mrs. Cleveland

Delightful Fiction. Reproductions of Paintings

MARCH CENTURY MAGAZINE

City Property—High Street Home

HOUSE AND LOT 80x200; building 7-rooms, 2 floors 40x40; furnace, bath, laundry, toilet, basement, natural gas, hot water, all modern improvements. Location ideal; property rents for $240 year. Price $2,750, cash. If you want a nice home this is your chance. For further particulars write or see Jno. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky.

Try a News Want Ad. They bring quick results.

CLOVERPORT HIGH SCHOOL NEWS NOTES

Washington. Entertainment A Success- C. H. S. Graduates May Enter State University And Other Colleges Without Examinations--Prof. Culton Delighted With Classification.

OVER 200 EVERY DAY

If you want one thrill of school enthusiasm, visit C. H. S. Go today. See what is going on "up there." Over two hundred children will greet you with welcome smiles and you will come away glad that you visited them. And you will find yourself wanting everything for them that they have not, and thankful for all the good things that have been provided for them by the teachers, school board and patrons.

o o o

More boys and more girls here will be anxious to go off to college. Prof. Culton has succeeded in getting C. H. S. classified so that the graduates will not have to be examined for entrance to State University. He has worked hard for this classification ever since last fall and recently received the letter that assured him that his efforts had been crowned with success. The letter is from Mc Henry Rhoads, of State University, and reads as follows: "Dear Mr. Culton:—The Committee on mands it will give me great pleasure to recommend your school for "A" classification. Yours very truly, Mc Henry Rhoads"

o o o

Besides State University, the C. H. S. graduate may enter Center College, Wesleyan College, Georgetown, Transylvania, and other colleges without conditions. Prof. Culton says, "Any boy or girl who wants a college education can get it. All he must do is want. The State pays his railroad expenses to and from the State University and a committee sees to it after he gets there that he can make money enough to pay his board."

o o o

Carlus Mattingly, Earl and Hudson Buhler are janitors. Although, they are three big boys, their job is as big as they are and by the time they have made good on it, a wonder it is that they have any energy left for their studies. The Buhler boys go to school and work before and after study hours, staying as late as seven o'clock at night and going as early as six o'clock every morning. Carlus Mattingly works all day long keeping up the furnace for the lower rooms and carrying coal upstairs for the upper rooms. The Buhler boys get $7 a month and the Mattingly boy gets $14 a month. They are among the most splendid and interesting boys in C. H. S., which is characteristic of every boy who works. And there are other boys going to C. H. S. who are holding down paying jobs and keeping their studies too. These will be heard from later.

o o o

The classes of Mr. Laslie, Miss Ora Hendricks, Miss Margaret Wroe and Miss Leonora McGavock made up the program for the Washington entertainment Friday night. Miss Eva May assisted them with the music. Their costumes were very attractive and every feature was not only entertaining but instructive, bringing out bits of history and incidents in the life of the Father of Our Country. Fifty children or more took part.

o o o

"In my room is where you can see advancement," said Miss Julia Wroe, who teaches the youngest children in primary department. "Some do not even know how to hold a pencil when they start to school. The easiest way to teach them to write is to let them write over my handwriting—the tracing method."

o o o

Prof. McCoy's class has made a complete scale for experiments in psychics. He is, himself, one of the best students as well as one of the best teachers the Cloverport High School has had. He makes his work and classes a study and thus gets satisfaction and cooperation from his pupils.

o o o

The partition in the High School room is one of convenience and beauty. It was ordered through Mr. Marion Weatherholt and is a credit to his business.

How Is Your Boiler?

It has been stated that a man's stomach is his boiler, his body is his engine and his mouth the fire box. Is your boiler (stomach) in good working order or is it so weak that it will not stand a full load and not able to supply the needed energy to your engine (body)? If you have any trouble with your stomach Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. Many very remarkable cures of stomach trouble have been effected by them. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

NEGRO FIRES A FREIGHT CAR

Starving Captive Starts Flames to Obtain His Freedom—Firemen Rescue Him.

Roanoke, Va.—Apparently none the worse for his trying experience, James Sparks, a negro, told the police how he had spent three days and nights in a locked freight car without food or water and then set fire to his prison in desperation in the hope that the blaze would attract attention and that he would be rescued.

Sparks entered the car at Montvale and almost immediately the car, loaded with lumber, was locked and sealed. Starving and almost frozen, Sparks set his travelling prison in flames here and the fire department was called. When the car door was broken down the captive fell out. He was too weak to stand unaided.

A Texas Wonder

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, removing gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. Send for Kentucky testimonials. Sold by druggists.—Advertisement.

The Parcel Post Gives You Access to this Store, Its Facilities, Its Assortments and Its Low Prices the Same As If You Lived In Our City

There was a time, and not so very long ago, when people living in our city had an edge on persons living away from our town, as regards taking advantage of our sales, our service, our assortments and our low prices. That time is now past, however, since the Parcel Post is in operation.

WHETHER you live one mile, one hundred or one thousand miles away from our store it is all the same so far as being able to avail yourself of this store's buying and selling facilities. All you need to do now is to write or phone us your order today and the mail man will deliver it to you in the morning.

Of course, there are some things we sell that cannot be delivered by the mail man under the Parcel Post Service.

For instance, we cannot send under the Parcel Post any big piece of Furniture nor any large piece of House Furnishings or Household Goods, as under Parcel Post regulations you cannot mail anything that weighs more than 11 pounds nor anything that exceeds in length and girth combined 72 inches.

Yet in a big store like ours where you can buy almost everything for everybody, you can readily see that there are a thousand and one things that can be sent by Parcel Post and the impressing feature of it all is that

We Will Deliver Free Anything You Buy From Us That Can Be Sent By Parcel Post

SHOULD you desire to buy some large or weighty articles, we will deliver them to you free of charge by express or freight, providing your purchase amounts to $5.00 or more and that you live within a radius of 200 miles of Louisville.

We want your business and are making this free delivery proposition so that you may send us a trial order and test thereby our ability to sell you better goods for the same price or the same goods at a lower price. And, remember, that whatever we sell, either by mail or over our counters, must in all instances be thoroughly satisfactory. If otherwise we cheerfully refund the money.

MARKET ST. J. BACON & SONS FOURTH AVE.
near Fourth near Market
Louisville, Ky. Louisville, Ky.

RICH EVENING CLOAKS WORN

Chasuble Design Considered Very Smart, Though Those With Trains Have a Following.

The chasuble coat, subjected to adaptations and constricting bands below the waist, is very smart. So also is the cape-shaped shoulder wrap of plain fur, which can be worn over the evening cloak and retained when the cloak is left. A delightful evening wrap follows rather the shape of the cardinal's robe and is carried out in chiffon velvet. The wide, plain shoulders are very effective.

Trained evening cloaks are coming in, another instance of the impracticable way in which most fashions are designed. A cloak should never touch the ground anywhere, and when it is designed for evening wear, and is therefore likely to have a long gown beneath it which has to be held up on leaving theaters and restaurants, it ought also to be so arranged that the fulness of the skirt can be brought round in the land to the front, where the cloak opens.

Therefore, a coat which fastens all the way down the front and trails behind violates two of the most important rules which ought to regulate the make of that particular garment. But fashion has not much to do with rules.

HIS BUSINESS

Stranger—I've lived a very fast life for the past ten years.
Preacher—Why don't you give it up and reform?
Stranger—Reform nothing; I'm a railroad engineer.

MORMON SHAFT FOR SEAGULL

Brigham Young's Scion Plans Memorial to Sacred Bird of Sect—Exterminated Grasshoppers.

New York.—It is learned that Mahorri Young, a grandson of Brigham Young, leader of the Mormon church, is at work in this city modeling a unique monument to the seagull. This bird is sacred to the Mormons because it saved the first immigrants to Utah from a plague of grasshoppers. It is said that the monument, which will be carved, will cost $40,000. It will be placed in the grounds of the Mormon temple at Salt Lake City. With such a costly monument the seagull apparently has a greater tribute of this kind paid it than any other bird.

At the base of the monument one side is to be devoted to an inscription and the remaining three will have low relief sculptures depicting the arrival of the Mormons in Utah, the saving of their first crop by the seagulls and the first harvest.

Many Are Anxious to Wed.
Washington.—Eleven hundred and seventy-six letters are held in the dead office for "Miss Z. X. Radcliffe, Elgin, Ill.," the mysterious woman who asked San Francisco's mayor to get her a husband.

THE "LITTLE" THINGS

We realize that "little" things often play important parts in business affairs, and that it is easy to lose a customer because of a slight inattention. Thus amid the numerous complicated details of the bank's operations, its officers keep a watchful eye on all the little things. Careful, thoughtful, daily service is always a most profitable policy. Wouldn't such service benefit YOU?

FIRST STATE BANK, :: Irvington, Ky.
J. C. PAYNE, Cashier

Ask the Farmer Who Has One

what wonders the Cumberland Telephone works for him. He will reply:

- 1 Sells my products;
- 2 Gets the best prices;
- 3 Brings supplies;
- 4 Protects the home;
- 5 Helps the housewife;
- 6 Increases profits;
- 7 Pays for itself over and over.

Seven cardinal reasons why YOU should be interested and send today for booklet. For information call Manager

Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co.
(Incorporated.)

H. E. ROYALTY

PERMANENT DENTIST

Cumb. Phone 18. Residence Shellman House

Hardinsburg, :: Kentucky
Office Over Farmers Bank

Splendid Farm 350 Acres.

This farm is near Lost Run in this county. Good, level, tillable land; watered with two good springs; 40 acres in timber. It grows good high colored tobacco, either Burley or Pryor; also wheat, corn and clover. Improvements, five room dwelling, one tenant house and big tobacco barn. This land can be bought at a bargain, as the party does not live on it and wants to sell it. It is five miles from Harney Station on the Branch. Price only $12 an acre.

JNO. D. BABBAGE.

It is the Odd Man Who Doesn't Save

That man who doesn't think of saving something for old age and the "rainy day," is an odd person. There are lots of men who want to save something but are careless about it, or negligent, or think they are not making enough. Every man should adjust his expenses and spending, so that he can save a little something. It is sometimes a hard fight against THAT DESIRE TO SPEND, but you can't win unless you make the fight. It is our business to help you make it, and we can if you will let us. Begin to save a little; deposit it in THE FARMERS BANK. You will then have begun right.

Don't be the Odd Man

The Farmers Bank,
Hardinsburg, Ky.

Come One! Come all!

let me look after your...

Insurance

No line too big
No line too small

Represent the oldest line of Fire, Life and Accident Insurance of any companies in the United States. All been tried and gave perfect satisfaction.

L. C. TAUL, Agent
Cloverport, Ky.

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS,

JNO. D. BABBAGE, Editor and Publisher

Issued Every Wednesday.

EIGHT PAGES.

CLOVERPORT, KY., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26, 1913

Subscription price $1.00 a year in advance.

BUSINESS LOCALS 10c per line, and 5c for each additional insertion.

CARDS OF THANKS over five lines charged for at the rate of 10 cents per line.

OBITUARIES charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line. money in advance.

Examine the label on your paper. If it is not correct please notify us.

Five announcements for jailor shows that even the lockup has its attractions.

The Farm Journal for five years and The Breckenridge News one year for $1.25. A nice Easter gift for your friend.

E. H. Shelman, of Irvington, is talking very strongly of entering the race for the State Senate. He says if he does conclude to get into the fight he will make it warm for somebody.

One request we make of you candidates is to have new pictures made if you want yours to grace our paper. Up-to-date cuts cannot be made from old photographs taken when a man wore a tie as big as a yard of carpet.

W. C. Moorman, of Glen Dean, is being strongly urged to make the race for County Judge. He has the matter under consideration. He is a mighty good man and the County Judge's place would be well taken care of in his hands.

Taylor Tate's announcement for assessor appears in this issue. Mr. Tate is the first in the ring for this important office. He is a young man competent for the duties of the office and deserves consideration by all Democrats.

There is a lot of good Democratic timber appearing in our announcement column. They are all men of good standing and character. The trouble is they are all so good and worthy it is hard to make a choice between them.

Mr. J. E. Monarch was down at the Oglesby sale Tuesday and threw his hat into the ring for County Court Clerk. His announcement appears this week. He needs no introduction to our readers. He is well known, popular and will make a strong race.

Moorman Ditto is an aspiring young Democrat with a lot of ambition and energy. He would like to represent his county in the next Legislature. He is a progressive Democrat and believes in the Wilson policies. His claims are worthy of consideration by the Democratic voters.

The poultry number of the Farmers Home Journal made us realize fully that the chicken ordinance had been passed in Cloverport and there is no use to even want to raise fine breeds or plain old hens. The ordinance is a blessed thing and a peace-maker for any town. A chicken is a mighty little thing to cause trouble, but as sure as a flower grows on one side of a fence and a chicken on the other, there is always disappointment.

The announcement of Frank DeHaven for sheriff which appears under the rooster in another column will meet the approval of his many friends who have been urging him to make the race. Mr. DeHaven comes from an old family of Democrats who have been modest, true and faithful to Democracy, but have never before offered for office. Mr. DeHaven is well suited for the place, and will make a strong race in the final election.

The most dependable service the political aspirants can employ to assure success is to engage advertising space in his home paper and have a straight talk with the voters every week. Let them know why you want the office and something about your ambitions and abilities to fill it after they will have given it to you. If you are willing to work honestly and untiringly for an office, you will deserve it, and the people will be glad to see you get it.

James Tinus, of Holt, came home from Hardinsburg Monday night with a smile a mile long because Monday's County Court had allowed a road from his place on the river to the Stephensport road, a distance of four miles. This is the second road victory Mr. Tinus has enjoyed and brought to his community. May he look toward Cloverport now and get us a better road along the river from Holt. If every man would work for a good road to and from his own farm the county would be known for good roads.

The announcement of Jesse Whitworth for State Senator appears in this issue. Mr. Whitworth is well known to the voters of the Tenth Senatorial District, having been active in politics and the business affairs of the county for more than twenty years. He has never sought public office, but has served his party as chairman and as a member of the Democratic County Committee for a number of years.

He is regarded as one of the shrewdest political organizers in the Fourth Congressional District, and in the fight for the redemption of the county from the Republican rule in 1901, and in the succeeding contests, his services to the tickets and to the county chairman were invaluable. Aside from his political record Mr. Whitworth is a model citizen, a member of the Methodist church, an active Sunday School worker, a prominent Mason, in all of which fields he is a natural leader. Mr. Whitworth has all the business qualities necessary to make the district a good Senator. The Breckenridge News is glad to let the Democrats of the district know the facts in this case and to say that the candidacy of Mr. Whitworth commends itself to the voters of the district, and will be received with enthusiasm by the Democracy of Breckenridge county.

WOMAN WRITES VOTE POEM

Verses May Aid Gladys Hinckley to Win Inez Milholland's Laurels; Mais Imbecile Hunted.

Washington.—Miss Inez Milholland, you had better watch out. Miss Gladys Hinckley, Miss Milholland's closest rival for the title of the most "beautiful American suffragist," enlisted poetry to her aid in the contest. She writes it herself. It is all about votes for women, and doctrines of that cause.

Miss Gladys Hinckley.

Speaking to her sister suffragists, Miss Hinckley says:

"Dream no more of a Guinevere, Or Lady Alice Vere de Vere. Times have changed, and now the women Militant rise, demanding rights. Man is not on the defensive. For he force has, and might makes right."

In arguing for the cause, she says of the suffrage tenets:

"Help the shop girls keep to honor. Change the code so badly balanced. If you think our role domestic, Let our office be domestic;

Civic cleansing, gutter cleaning. Let us dust and sweep the cities. Woman's sphere can be domestic. In politics for all the nation.

Let us try, and if we blunder Help us, for you long have hurt us. Chivalry of noblest order.

Now can grow if men and women Stand together, understanding.

FINDS MYSTERY OF THE DEEP

Steamer Discovers Bark but Fate of Captain and Crew Is Like That of Celeste's.

Newport News, Va.—Another mystery of the deep, virtually paralleling the disappearance of the crew of the schooner Marie Celeste years ago, came to port with the British tank steamer Roumanian.

The Marie Celeste was found at sea with a pot boiling in the galley, its captain's papers on the cabin table and every indication that men were aboard within a few hours of its discovery. Nothing, however, ever was heard of the skipper or crew.

The story of the Norwegian bark Remittent, with a crew of six, is equally strange. The Roumanian sighted the Remittent drifting near the Azores and took it in tow.

The boat's deck planks, once hoisted to a glistening white, bore the marks of many feet, but there was no one aboard and nothing to explain the disappearance of the master and crew. In the cabin the lockfast doors were undisturbed; charts and papers were secure. In the breaker there was fresh water; salt junk and biscuits were in the stores. A mainsail and two jibs were snugly furled and lifeboats swung in the davits.

In a gale 100 miles off Cape Henry, Captain Claridge lost the Remittent. No other ship has reported it since. The Remittent was commanded by Captain Torgersen and sailed from Rio Grande do Sul Oct. 25 for Liverpool.

THIEF BETRAYED BY A PATCH

Seattle Woman Recognizes Handwork She Put on Trousers and Bandit Is Taken.

Seattle, Wash.—Recognition last week by Mrs. William J. Mayorick of a patch she had placed on the leg of her husband's trousers resulted in the arrest of two men and the recovery from the home of one of them a wagonload of articles stolen from Seattle homes. Charles Castro, from whose home the articles were recovered, was wearing the clothes, and sat opposite Mrs. Mayorick in a street car. When she questioned his right to the clothes he abused her and men passengers took him into custody and delivered him at police headquarters. Mayorick's name was written on a pocket lining.

The other man arrested is Toney Donlo, who was found in Castro's home. The police say he is a member of a "black hand" organization that has been terrorizing Seattle Italians and that he is wanted in Idaho to answer criminal charges.

HARDINSBURG NEWS

Locals And Personal Points. Circuit Court Brings Well-Known Lawyers To The County Seat.

Miss Louise Moorman has returned to her home in Glen Dean after a visit to Miss Margaret Peyton at the Commercial Hotel.

Mrs. J. E. Kincheloe is at home after a shopping trip to Louisville.

Mrs. Richie, of Ekron, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Lewis.

Hawkins Smith, of Garfield, was in town on business Friday.

Look for the program next week of the Missionary Rally to be held at the Baptist church March 29th and 30th.

Francis Dillon represented the County High School in the oratorical contest at Elizabethtown Saturday.

W. B. Lennon, foreman in the Leader office, was in Louisville last week consulting an oculist.

Misses Martha and Isabel Gardner delightfully entertained the Embroidery Club Thursday afternoon. The club was favored with several solos by Miss Della Kincheloe. Welsh rabbit, pickles and chocolate were served. Miss Isabel Gardner did the cooking on the chafing dish. The following were the guests of honor: Mrs. E. B. English and daughter, Annie DeJarnette English, of Hartford, Mrs. John M. Skillman, Misses Tida Mercer, Anna Kincheloe and Maud Smith.

Rev. J. J. Willett filled his appointment at the Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Willett has been sick for several weeks.

Misses Annie Lewis Whitworth and Judith Ellen Beard came home from State University, Lexington, for the Washington holiday.

C. L. Beard, Sr., and J. Whitworth spent several days in Louisville last week.

Mrs. George W. Evans left for Louisville Saturday morning to select her spring millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gibson, of Irvington, attended the funeral of Mrs. A. Marshall.

W. C. McElwaine left Saturday morning for Richmond.

Mrs. Susan Squires and Mrs. Amos Board spent the week-end in Cloverport as the guests of Mrs. Larkin Gibson.

Mrs. Mary E. Dyer, after a lengthy stay with Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Barnes, left Monday for Owensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Dowell were the guests of relatives in Garfield Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Haynes has returned to her home in Garfield after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. D. D. Dowell.

Judge Henry DeHaven Moorman spent the week-end in Louisville.

Attorney Charlie Moorman, of Louisville, attended Circuit Court last week.

Make Your Home Attractive

Fine houses and beautiful surroundings speak well for the town, showing that an energetic and industrious people are its citizens. Neat, attractive Farm Dwellings, with up-to-date conveniences added, aid to keep the boys and girls on the farm. If you contemplate building or remodeling your home, don't be carried away by the alluring advertisements of distant dealers. Purchase your material from your home dealer; he will be more interested in you and will give you the best advice. Our home contractor carries a full line of

Lumber, Sash, Doors, Moulding, Lath, Roofing, Brick

in fact everything to complete your building

Paints, Oils and Varnishes for exterior and interior finishes.

Planing Mill Work to Order

MARION WEATHERHOLT, General Contractor
Cloverport, Kentucky

This is the ninth week in the year and the week when most every wrong-doer decides to do right. While we are enthusiastic over doing the right thing, let us do the most logical right thing by STARTING a bank account—no matter how small—which by making regular deposits will have grown because you will have made it grow.

Let Our Bank be Your Bank

"Total Resources, Including Trust Investments $600,000.00"

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

THE BANK OF HARDINSBURG & TRUST CO. Hardinsburg, Ky.

Alexander's White Sale

Begins Saturday

Morning Mar. 8th

Watch This Space!

Breckenridge News and Louisville Daily Herald 1 Year $3

John O'Reilly, of Louisville, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Reilly.

A little baby boy came February the twenty-second to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beard.

Dr. and Mrs. Hart, of McDaniels, passed through town Sunday.

Raymond Dowell spent Sunday with his parents in Garfield.

Prof. R. Y. Maxey and Robert Curtis attended the oratorical contest in Elizabethtown.

Henry Jolly, of Weitman, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Skillman.

At the Beaux Arts in Brussels a mild year competition has just been held, determining places to be held the remaining months of the year. Ernest Bruce Haswell came out second, a lady of thirty-five being first. The test was the life size figure of a girl and a sketch of a girl and a sketch for a cafe decoration entitled, "A Summer Day."

John P. Haswell, Jr., of Louisville, is in town. Mrs. John Funk, of Ekron, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Lewis.

THE OLD RELIABLE BRECKINRIDGE BANK

Cloverport, Ky. Organized 1872

U. S. DEPOSITORY FOR POSTAL SAVINGS FUNDS

SOLID AS A ROCK FOR 40 YEARS

An Absolutely Safe Place to do Business

3 Per Cent on Time Deposits

WEDNESDAY, FEB 26, 1913

Entered at the Post Office at Cloverport, Ky. as second class matter.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

GENERAL OFFICES
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO

BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

RATES FOR POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Precinct and city Offices..... $ 2.50
For County Offices..... $ 5.00
For State and District Offices..... $ 15.00
For Calls, per line..... .10
For Cards, per line..... .10
For All Publications in the interest of individuals or expression of individual views per line..... .10

LOCAL BREVITIES

Wm. White leaves Monday for Lexington.

Joe Trent, of Hardinsburg, was here last week.

J. M. Gregory was in Louisville Tuesday.

A. B. Skillman has returned home from Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell went to Garfield Saturday.

Fresh oysters direct from Baltimore at the English Kitchen.

Miss Addie G. Ditto returns to her home in Louisville today.

Miss Martha Willis will entertain the Girls' Club Friday afternoon.

Miss Esther Payne, of Stephensport, is visiting Mr. Gordon Payne.

Mrs. Pete Nation is critically ill at the home of her father, Ed Pate.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burdett, of Mattingly, have moved to Evansville.

Mrs. Geer will entertain the Ladies' Reading Club tomorrow afternoon.

A fine little son arrived Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bishop.

Mrs. Hoffious Behen and daughter, Marion, spent last week in Owensboro.

A little daughter has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kinton Pate.

Mrs. Sallie Gross, of Holt, was the guest of Mrs. Wickliffe DeHaven Sunday.

Miss Anna Bails, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs. Randall and Mrs. H. D. Ross.

James Winn, of Louisville, was the guest of Mrs. Ambie Williams Daniels Sunday.

Mrs. Duke is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jess Burnett, in the West End.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Miller and son, Robert, returned home from Hardinsburg Saturday.

Mrs. Crof Pate and children, of Kirk, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Rilla Pate, near Tar Springs.

Mrs. D. A. Conniff and daughter, of Louisville, were in Irvington last week visiting friends.

Mrs. J. H. Walker entertained the carpet chain for the Methodist church yesterday afternoon.

William Darst, of the Henderson Route shops, is in Memphis on business for the company.

J. D. Starks, of Madisonville, was visiting relatives at Kingswood and Webster last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickliffe Moorman are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moorhead, Jr., of Versailles.

Miss Daisy Dean and her sister, Mrs. Howard of Glen Dean, went to Louisville Monday night.

A charming little daughter has come to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brickey, of Mattingly.

W. G. Humphrey, of Lewisport, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Humphrey, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Farrow and children left last Thursday for Enid, Oklahoma, to seek a location.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jarboe and children went to McQuady Saturday to visit his brother, Sam Jarboe.

Mrs. Walker Board, of Louisville, returned from Henderson Monday where she had been visiting her daughter.

Mrs. Sanford Gary, of Louisville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Bohler, has returned home.

Mrs. Charles Hamman and children, of Cloverport, were guests of Mrs. Sallie Bennett Sunday at Stephensport.

Frank Moorman left Monday for California. He went by the way of New Orleans and expects to have a fine trip.

Miss Lizzie Skillman went to Louisville Friday to visit with her mother at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Skillman.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Knott and children moved to Kosmosdale Thursday. Mr. Knott has a job in the cement plant.

News has been received here of the sudden death of Nat Tindall at Evansville. He formerly lived near Mattingly.

Mrs. Mildred Pate, the aged mother of C. B. Pate and Remus Pate, is ill at the home of her son, Remus Pate, on the hill.

Mrs. Bell Moore, of McDaniels, came over to Basin Springs Monday to see her new grandson just arrived at E. C. Foote's.

Mrs. Fred Perry and daughter, Annie Murray, left today for a visit to the home of their uncle, Logan Murray, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith and their father, Mr. Pete Smith, of Stephensport, were the guests of Miss Bertha Smith Monday.

J. A. Furrow, who sold his farm recently by advertising it in the Breckenridge News, left last week with his family for Kansas to live.

Miss Allene Hardaway, of Bewleyville, is attending the Normal at Glen Dean and staying at the home of her aunt, Mrs. D. C. Moorman.

Mrs. John D. Gregory returned from Versailles Tuesday night. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Hudson, who returned home Thursday.

Mayor F. D. Hale and his father, Mr. Hale, of Hawesville, were here last week. Mayor Hale has been made president of the Hawesville Bank.

J. J. Whitworth, of Lodi, attended Oglesby's sale yesterday, and paid his respects to the Breckenridge News which he has been taking twenty-six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mattingly have returned home from Tampa, Fla., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McDonald. They saw the Cloverport folks in St. Petersburg and left them all well.

BIG SALE

At Oglesby's Yesterday--Large Crowd--Good Prices--Dave Henry The Crier.

The sale of farming implements, etc., at Mr. Ed. Oglesby's place yesterday attracted a large crowd and everything sold at fair prices.

Mr. Dave Henry, of Irvington, cried the sale and it was over by 3 o'clock.

Appointed By Governor.

Jesse Whitworth has been appointed by Governor McCreary as a delegate to the Conference for Education in the South which will be held in Richmond, Va., April 16 and 18.

Roller Skating Again.

Roller skating is a new fad in sports again. A handsome new rink is being built in Louisville and the young people are skating on the streets now day and night. The fad will be revived in Cloverport soon and on the concrete walks of Irvington and Hardinsburg.

Here From Michigan.

A. C. Moorman, of Beloit, Mich., was in Glen Dean last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Jeff Owen, and settling the law suit with the insurance company over the body of his brother. Mr. Moorman is auditor of one of the largest Utility concerns in Beloit.

Don't Get Up in a Hurry.

Don't jump up the first thing your eyes are open. Remember that while you sleep the vital organs are at rest. The vitality is lowered and the circulation not so strong.

A sudden spring out of bed is a shock to these organs, especially to the heart, as it starts pumping the blood suddenly. Don't be in such a hurry. Stretch and yawn and yawn and stretch. Stretch the arms and legs, stretch the whole body. A good yawn and stretch is better even than a cold bath. Take time. It will keep you young and add years to your life.

—From the Family Doctor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For County Attorney

We are authorized to announce JUDGE H. C. MURRAY, of Hardinsburg, as a candidate for County Attorney, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August Primary.

For Jailor

We are authorized to announce ROE HOOK, of Hardinsburg, as a candidate for Jailor of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election, Aug. 2.

We are authorized to announce G. W. MILLER, of Kirk, as a candidate for Jailor of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election August 2nd.

We are authorized to announce TICE HENDRICK, as a candidate for Jailor of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August Primary.

We are authorized to announce J. M. LEWIS, of Hardinsburg, as a candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the August Primary.

We are authorized to announce CALVIN HENDRICK, Jr., of New Bethel, as a candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election August 2, 1913.

For Sheriff

We are authorized to announce FRANK DEHAVEN, of Hardinsburg, as a candidate for Sheriff of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election August 2.

For Assessor

We are authorized to announce TAYLOR TATE, of Hardinsburg, as a candidate for Assessor of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election August 2.

For Representative

We are authorized to announce MOORMAN DITTO, of Glen Dean, as a candidate for Representative of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election August 2.

For County Court Clerk

We are authorized to announce JOHN E. MONARCH, of Kirk, as a candidate for County Court Clerk of Breckenridge county, subject to the action of the Democratic party in Primary Election August 2.

TO RE-COVER SCREEN DOORS

Carpenter Has Method That Is Not Only Easy, but Very Quick—Stretches Wire Tight.

The man in the country finds it is a rather difficult job to repair screen doors and windows, as the wire is very hard to stretch tight. The carpenter, however, has a method that is not only easy, but very quick as well, and it never fails to stretch the wire tight.

The illustration shows two carpenters' horses, which of course are not absolutely necessary, as the work may be done on a work bench, table, or even on the floor.

Two 2-inch or 3-inch pieces of board are set on edge as shown at BB. On this the screen door is placed. It is then sprung down in the center and held in place with a wooden clamp, slipped over the door, and the table top or board.

Stretching the Wire.

The wire cloth is tacked to one end of the door, and pulled as tight as possible with the hands, and tacked to the opposite end, the clamp A is then removed, and the door allowed to spring back to its normal shape, which will stretch the wire cloth tight.

A little experimenting will soon tell how wide the pieces BB should be to properly stretch the wire. For the screens over the windows they will of course not be so wide. This method is easy.

Planting for Future Seed.

Few farmers feel that they have time to give to an elaborate corn-breeding plot, but none of them is so busy that he can't take time to select the best hundred ears in his supply of seed, and, after testing to be sure of its vitality, plant in a plot on the south or west sides of his main field.

Doing this will not only simplify the matter of selecting the seed ears next fall, but the location of the best and most thrifty type of corn in the position mentioned will mean that much of the remainder of the field will be fertilized by the tassels on these better stalks.

Poor Seed Unprofitable.

The loss from planting neglected seed corn reduces or destroys the profit on the corn crop of each individual farmer, and in the aggregate is an annual loss to the country of many millions of dollars.

Beet Crop Shortage.

A shortage of 27 per cent, is reported in the European beet sugar crop. German authority says the yield will only show six million tons.

News and Herald 1 Year $3.00

Wants.

NOTE: Advertisers please notify the editor when you want advertisement discontinued.

Wanted—Good Brood Mare
WANTED—Good brood mare, for 7 years old; well broke to work. J. J. Whitworth, Lodi, Ky.

For Sale—Manure Spreader
FOR SALE—Manure Spreader. Cost $110. My price only $80 if taken at once. W. J. Schopp, Stephensport, Ky.

Negro Hill Farm For Sale
"NEGRO" Hill farm for sale, 68 acres more or less. For particulars write Frank English, Skillman, Ky.

Free! Free!
SEND your name and address and we will send you the May Manton Fashion Sheet FREE. Wm. Hirsch, 173 Goods, Notions, and 10c store, 1817 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

For Sale
FOR SALE—A 15 horse power stationary Gas Engine, Watkins make, in good repair. Breckenridge News, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale
FOR SALE—Deeds, Mortgages and all kinds of legal blanks. Breckenridge News, Cloverport, Ky.

AGENTS WANTED

Agents wanted to take subscriptions for the Atlanta, Ga., Tri-Weekly Constitution. Valuable premiums for subscribers, liberal commissions and cash prizes for agents. You can make money fast in any small town or along any Rural Route. Some agents make a good living. Others make $15 to $20 a month on the side, soliciting subscriptions. Address for particulars: TRI-WEEKLY CONSTITUTION, Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. W. B. TAYLOR

..Permanent..
Dentist

Irvington, Kentucky

BOUGHT HER A $500 RING

The Maid to her betrothed—Are you fond of expensive things?
The Man—I love you very dearly.

WHAT OUR HOUSEHOLDS COST

Ten Billion Dollars a Year is Figure Arrived at by Professor Muensterberg.

New York.—The women of the United States spend nearly $10,000,000,000 a year for maintaining the households of the country, according to Prof. Hugo Muensterberg of Harvard in a statement which is causing much discussion among New York women just now. In woman's hands, therefore, is the greatest single business of the United States, for the vast expenditures of the government itself are insignificant beside such a tremendous budget.

The only rival of housekeeping as an industry is agriculture. The total value of the products of agriculture in the United States is also about $10,000,000,000 a year. But it should be remembered that that figure is for the output, the finished product of the farms, while the expenditure of the housewives is only for the raw materials from which by their own labor and management they create the real values of the home—a finished product which can hardly be estimated in financial terms.

The Harvard professor points out that, with such a tremendous business undertaking on their hands, the women of the country do not fit themselves for their highly technical and professional duties with "that deeper knowledge of the material, its sources, its effects, its characteristics, which would be demanded of any other large economic transactions." He laments the bargain craze, and urges more care, not for the dress of the housekeeper, but for the dress of the home, which, he says, is even more important.

For all which remarks the women of New York are expressing their thanks to the learned professor and quietly wondering among themselves what kind of home he is used to seeing in the neighborhood of Harvard square.

The Best Soil.

The best soil upon a farm is one that warms early in the spring and that holds enough moisture for plant growth. A soil of this kind should contain some sand, clay and organic matter. The sand permits the air to enter and the clay and organic matter aid in holding the moisture. It is friable and easy to work.

Lead The Easter Parade

That's what you'll do if you let us make your new a Tailored-to-Order Suit. It costs little more to have your Easter Suit made to order than to buy it ready made. Every vestige of the cloth is wool through and through and your satisfaction unqualifiably guaranteed.

EASTER SUIT

Men's Suits from $14 to $35 Ladies' Suits from $14.50 to $34.50 Ladies' Wash Suits, $9.75 to $15.50

Ladies' Skirts from $5.00 to $12.50 Ladies' Wash Skirts from $4.50 to $8.75

Get Your Order in Early

J. C. NOLTE & BRO.
CLOVERPORT, KY.

$5 to $15 SAVED

on Buggies if You Order Now!

I can save you a splendid per cent on Buggies, Two-in-Ones, Run-a-bouts and Surries. Let me know what you need and want by February 26th.....

Conveyances for Business and Pleasure

Well-built and will be a pride to you and the community. Good looking buggies are like fine horses, they give a country an air of prosperity and a man inspiration to travel in the best style he can afford.

An opportunity to buy and save on rigs of every build and style will be given you between now and next Wednesday.

I. B. RICHARDSON

Garfield, Ky.

For "Quality's Sake" Use

Lewisport—BEST—Flour

IT MEANS

PERFECTION IN YOUR BAKING

If Your Grocer Don't Keep it, Write to us

LEWISPORT MILL CO.

Lewisport, Kentucky

J. C. PAYNE INSURANCE AGENCY

IRVINGTON, KENTUCKY

Represents the Leading Companies in the Country

FIRE, LIGHTNING, TORNADO AND CYCLONE

Insures Baggage and Personal Effects of Travelers. Household Goods and Merchandise in transit. Your business solicited.

Mules, Hogs and Cattle

We have 1 pair mules 7-years-old, weighing 2400 lbs., and 1 pair 4-year-old mules and an extra pair of grey mules 3-years-old and 1 mule 3 years-old 15-3. All good ones and must be sold at once. We have 1 Poland China boar weighing 140 lbs., that is extra good and will be delivered to any railroad point in the county for $15. Have 2 Polled Durham bulls 6 months old that are being priced to move them quick. If you need a mule, boar or bull, write or come to see us at once.

W. R. MOORMAN & SON, : Glen Dean, Ky.
8 miles from Hardinsburg and 2 from Glen Dean.

REQUISITES OF GOOD DENTISTRY

are care and skill. Care in the smallest detail that the work may be lasting, and skill so that pain and annoyance to the patient will be reduced to a minimum. I solicit your work because I can confidently guarantee both of these requisites in my work. Teeth extracted without pain.

W. A. WALKER, Dentist
Hardinsburg, Ky.

Office over Bakery

The Stolen Singer

By Martha Bellinger

(Copyright, 1911, The Robb-Merrill Company)

CHAPTER XX.

Monsieur Chatelet Takes the Wheel.

Sallie Kingsbury would have given up the ghost without more ado, had she known what secular and unministerial passions were converging about Parson Thayer's peaceful library. As it was, she had a distinct feeling that life wasn't as simple as it had been heretofore, and that there were puzzling problems to solve. She was almost certain that she had caught Mr. Hand using an oath; though when she charged him with it, he had said that he had been talking Spanish to himself—he always did when he was alone. Sallie didn't exactly know the answer to that, but told him that she hoped he would remember that she was a professor. "What's that?" inquired Hand.

"It's a Christian in good and regular standing, and it's what you ought to be," said Sallie.

And now that nice Mr. Chamberlain, whom she had fed in the early morning, had dashed up to the kitchen door behind Little Simon's best horse, deposited a man from Charlesport, and then had disappeared. The man had also unceremoniously left her kitchen. He might be a minister brought there to officiate at the church on the following Sabbath, Sallie surmised; but on second thought she dismissed the idea. He didn't look like any minister she had ever seen, and was very far indeed from the Parson Thayer type.

Hercules Thayer's business, including his ministerial duties, had formed the basis and staple of Sallie's affectionate interest for seventeen years, and it wasn't her nature to give up that interest, now that the chief actor had stepped from the stage. So she speculated and wondered, while she did more than her share of the work.

She picked radishes from the garden for supper, threw white screening over the imposing leaves of bread still cooling on the side table, and was sharpening a knife on a whetstone, preparatory to carving thin slices from a veal loaf that stood near by, when she was accosted by some one appearing in the doorway.

"Is this the Red House?" It was a cool, sharp voice, sounding even more outlandish than Mr. Hand's. Sallie turned deliberately toward the door and surveyed the new-comer.

"Well, yes; I guess so. But you don't need to scare the daylight out of me, that way."

The stranger entered the kitchen and pulled out a chair from the table. "Give me something to eat and drink—the best you have, and be quick about it, too."

Sallie paused, envying knife in hand, looking at him with frank curiosity. "Well, I snum! You ain't the new minister either, now, are you?"

The stranger made no answer. He had thrown himself into the chair, as if tired. Suddenly he sat up and looked around nertly, then at Sallie, who was returning his gaze with interest. "Where are you from, anyway?" she inquired. "We don't see people like you around these parts very often."

"I dare say," he snarled. "Are you going to get me a meal, or must I tramp over these confounded hills all day before I can eat?"

"Oh, I'll get you up a bite, if that's all you want. I never turned anybody away hungry from this door yet, and we've had many a worse looking tramp than you. I guess Miss Redmond won't mind."

"Miss Redmond?" The stranger started to his feet, glowering on Sallie. "Look here! Is this place a hotel, or isn't it?"

"Well, anybody'd think it was, the way I've been driven from pillar to post for the last ten days! But you can stay; I'll get you a meal, and a good one, too."

Sallie's good nature was rewarded by a convulsion of anger on the part of the guest. "Fool! Idiot!" he screamed. "You trick me in here! You lie to me!"

"Oh, set down, set down!" interrupted Sallie. "You don't need to get so hot up as all that! I'll get you something to eat. There ain't any hotel within five miles of here—and a poor one at that!" Thus protesting and attempting to soothe, Sallie saw the stranger make a grab for his hat and start for the door, only to find it suddenly shut and locked in his face. Mr. Chamberlain, moreover, was on the inside, facing the foreigner.

"If you will step through the house and go out the other way," Mr. Chamberlain remarked coolly, "it will oblige me. My horse is loose in the yard, and I'm afraid you'll scare him off. He's shy with strangers."

The two men measured glances. "I thought you traveled afoot when pursuing your real estate business," sneered the stranger.

"I do, when it suits my purposes," replied Chamberlain.

"What game are you up to, anyway?"

in this disgusting country?" inquired the other.

"Riddling it of rascals. This way, please," and Chamberlain pointed before him toward the door leading into the hall. As the stranger turned, his glance fell on Sallie, still envying her veal loaf. "Idiot!" he said disgustedly.

"Well, I haven't been caught yet, anyhow," said Sallie grimly.

Chamberlain's voice interrupted her. "This way, and then the first door on the right. Make haste, if you please, Monsieur Chatelet."

At the name, the stranger turned, standing at bay, but Chamberlain was at his heels. "You see, I know your name. It was supplied me at the reading room. Here—on the right—quickly!"

The hall was dim, almost dark, the only light coming from the open doorway on the right. Whether he wished or no, Monsieur Chatelet was forced to advance into the range of the doorway; and once there, he found himself pushed unceremoniously into the room.

It was a large, cool room, lined with bookcases. Near the middle stood an oblong table covered with green felt and supporting an old brass lamp. Four people were in the room, besides the two new-comers. Aleck Van Camp was on a low step-ladder, just in the act of handing down a book from the top shelf. Near the step-ladder two women were standing, with their backs toward the door. Both were in white, both were tall, and both had abundant dark hair. One of the French windows leading out on to the porch was open, and just within the sill stood the man from Charlesport.

"Here's a wonderful book—a rare one—the record of that famous Latin controversy," Aleck was saying, when he became conscious of the entrance of Chamberlain and a stranger.

"Ah, hello, Chamberlain, that you?" he cried. Agatha and Melanie, turning suddenly to greet Chamberlain, simultaneously encountered the gleam of gaze of Chatelet. It was fixed first on Melanie, then on Agatha, then returned to Melanie with an added increment of rage and bafflement.

"So!" he sneered. "I find you after all, Princess Auguste Stephanie of Krolvetz! Consorting with these—these swine!"

Melanie looked at him keenly, with hesitating suspicion. "Ah! Duke Stephen's cat's paw! I remember you—well!" But before the words were fairly out of her mouth, Agatha's voice had cut in: "Mr. Van Camp, that is he! That is he! The man on the Jeanne D'Arc!"

"We thought as much," answered Chamberlain. "That's why he is here."

"We only wanted your confirmation of his identity," said the man who had been standing by the window, as he came forward. "Monsieur Chatelet, you are to come with me. I am the sheriff of Charlesport county, and have a warrant for your arrest."

As the sheriff advanced toward Chatelet, the cornered man turned on him with a sound that was half hiss, half an oath. He was like a panther standing at bay. Aleck turned toward Melanie.

"It seems that you know this man, Melanie?"

"Yes, I know him—to my sorrow."

"What do you know of him?"

"He is the paid spy of the Duke Stephen, my cousin. He does all his dirty work." Melanie laughed a bit nervously as she added, turning to Chatelet: "But you are the last man I expected to see here. I suppose you are come from my excellent cousin to find me, eh? Is that the case?"

Chatelet's eyes, resting on her, burned with hate. "Yes, your Highness. I am the humble bearer of a message from Duke Stephen to yourself."

"And that message is—"

"A command for your immediate return to Krolvetz. Matters of importance wait you there."

"And if I refuse to return?"

Chatelet's shoulders went up and his hands spread out in that insolent gesture affected by certain Europeans. Chamberlain stepped forward impatiently.

"Look here, you people," he began, "you told me this chap was a bloomin' kidnaper, and so I rounded him up—I nabbed him. And here you are exchanging howdy-do. What's the meaning of it all?"

As he spoke, Chamberlain's eyes rested first on Melanie, then on Agatha, whom he had not seen before. "By Jove!" he ejaculated.

"Whom did he kidnap?" questioned Melanie.

"Why, me, Miss Reinyer," cried Agatha. "He stole my car and dragged me and got me into his yacht—heaven knows why!"

"Kidnaped! You!" cried Melanie.

"Just so," agreed Aleck. "And now I see why—you scoundrel!" He turned upon Chatelet with contemptuous fury. "For once you were caught, eh? These ladies are much alike—that is true. So much so that I myself was taken back the first time I saw Miss Redmond. You thought Miss Redmond was the princess—masquerading as an opera singer."

"Her Highness has always been admired as a singer!" burst out Chatelet.

"No doubt! And even you were deceived!" Aleck laughed in derision. "But when you take so serious a step as an abduction, my dear man, be sure you get hold of the right victim."

"She was even singing the very song that used to be a favorite of her Highness!" remarked Chatelet.

"Your memory serves you too well!" But Chatelet turned scornfully toward Agatha. "You sang it well."

Weak Sickly Ailing Women

What more can we do to convince you that you positively can find perfect health and relief from your suffering by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? All the world knows of the wonderful cures which have been made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, yet some women do not yet realize that all that is claimed for it is true.

If suffering women could be made to believe that this grand old medicine will do all that is claimed for it, how quickly their suffering would end!

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women in the world—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true.

Read What These Women Say!

Bluffton, Ohio.—"I wish to thank you for the good I derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound sometime ago. I suffered each month such agony that I could scarcely endure, and after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely cured."

"Then I had an attack of organic inflammation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured. I thank you for what your remedies have done for me and should anything bother me again, I shall use it again, for I have great faith in your remedies. You may use my testimonial and welcome. I tell every one what your remedies have done for me."—Mrs. Rhona WINGATE, Box 395, Bluffton, Ohio.

Pentwater, Mich.—"A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement. I had backache and bearing down pains so bad that I could not sit in a chair or walk across the floor and I was in severe pain all the time. I felt discouraged as I had taken everything I could think of and was no better. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am strong and healthy."—Mrs. ALICE DARLING, R. F. D. No. 2, Box 77, Pentwater, Mich.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

Mademoiselle, very well. And, as this gentleman asserts, you deceived even me. But you are indiscreet to walk unattended in the park."

Agatha, unweary and weak, had grown pale with fear.

"Don't talk with him, Mr. Van Camp, he is dangerous. Get him away," she pleaded.

"True, Miss Redmond. We only waste time. Sheriff—"

Again the sheriff advanced toward Chatelet, and again he was warned off with a hissing oath. At the same moment a shadow fell within the other doorway. As Chatelet's glance rested on the figure standing there, his face gleamed. He pointed an accusing forefinger.

"There is the abductor, if any such person is present at all," said he. "That is the man who stole the lady's car and ran it to the dock. He is your man, Mister Sheriff, not I."

The accusation came with such a tone of conviction on the part of the speaker, that for an instant it confused the mind of every one present. In the pause that followed, Chatelet turned with an insolent shrug toward Agatha. "This lady—" and every word had a saucer in it—"this lady will testify that I am right."

Agatha stared with a face of alarm toward the doorway, where Hand stood stooped silent.

"If that is true, Miss Redmond," began the sheriff.

"No—no!" cried Agatha.

"He had nothing to do with it?" questioned the sheriff.

As he waited for her answer, Agatha suddenly came to herself. Her trembling ceased; she looked about upon them all with her truthful eyes; looked upon Hand standing unconcerned in the doorway, upon Chatelet in the corner gleaming like an oily devil.

"No—he had nothing to do with it," she said.

Chatelet's laugh bent back her words like a bludgeon.

"Liar, all liar!" he cried. "I might have known!"

But Chamberlain was impatient of all this. "And now, Monsieur Kidnap-er, you can walk off with this gentleman here. And you can't go one minute too soon. The penitentiary's the place for you."

Chatelet turned on him with another laugh. "You need not feel obliged to hold on to me, Mister Land Agent. I know when I'm beaten—which you Englishmen never do. Got another of those pears you offered me this morning?"

Before Chamberlain could make reply, or before the sheriff and his prisoner could get to the door, there was the clug of an automobile. A second later urgent and loud voices penetrated the room, first from the steps, then from the hall. One was the hearty voice of a man, the other was Lydia's.

"Can't see her! Tell me I can't see her after I've run a hundred miles a day into the jungle on purpose to see her! The idea! Where is she? In here?" And in stalked Mr. Straker, with cap, linen duster, and high galloped boots. He was pulling off his goggles. "Well, what's this? A family party? Where's Miss Redmond?"

"Mr. Straker—" cried Agatha.

"That's me! Oh, there you are! Why don't you open up and get some light? I can't see a thing."

"Wait a minute, Mr. Straker—" Agatha was saying, when suddenly the attention of everybody in the room was drawn outside.

When Chamberlain had told Chatelet that his horse was loose in the yard, it happened to be the truth; now, excited by fear of the strange machine that had just arrived, the horse, with flying bridle, was snorting and prancing on his way to the vegetable garden. It was almost beyond masculine power to resist the impulse of pursuit. Aleck and Chamberlain sprang through the window, the sheriff went as far as the lawn after them, and in that instant Chatelet slipped like an eel through the open door and out to the gate to Straker's machine, still chugging. The sheriff saw him as he jumped in.

"Hey, there!" he shouted, and made a lively run for the gate. But before he reached it, Chatelet had jerked open the lever, loosened the brake, and was passing the church at half speed.

"Hey, there," quickly called the sheriff. "He's got away!"

But Mr. Hand had already thought what was best to be done.

"Come on, here's another machine. We'll chase him!" he cried, as he went for the white motor-car, standing farther back under the trees. It had to be cranked, which required some seconds, but presently they were off—Hand and the sheriff, in hot pursuit after Straker's car.

Chamberlain and Aleck, triumphant, leading the horse, came back in time to see the settling cloud of dust.

"Mr. Chamberlain—Mr. Van Camp!" cried Agatha. "They've gone! They've gone! They've got away!"

"Who's got away?" demanded Chamberlain.

"All of them!" groaned Agatha, as she sank down on the piazza steps. "Jimmy Christmas!" ejaculated Mr. Straker. "This beats any twenty-three I ever saw. Regular Dick Deadwood game! And he's run off with my new racer!"

"What!" yelled Chamberlain. "Did that bloomin' sheriff let that bloomin' rascal get away?"

"He ain't anybody I'd care to keep!" chuckled Straker. "But you know the new racer's worth something."

"Did Chatelet go off in that machine?" again inquired Chamberlain slowly and distinctly of the two women.

"Precisely," said Melanie, while Agatha bowed head nodded.

"By Jove, that sheriff's a duffer! Here, Van, give me the horse." And with the words Chamberlain grabbed Little Simon's best roadster, mounted him bareback, and turned his head up the road.

"I'll catch him yet!" he yelled back. But he didn't. Three miles farther along he came upon the wreck. The racer was lying on its side in a ditch which recent rains had converted into a substantial volume of mire and mud. The white machine was drawn easily up under a spreading hemlock farther on, but Mr. Hand and the sheriff were nowhere in sight.

As Chamberlain stopped to gaze on the overturned car, he heard the crashing of underbrush in the woods near by. The steps came nearer. It was evident the chase was up; they were off the scent and obliged to return.

"Humph!" grunted Chamberlain, and for once the clear springs of his disposition were made turbid with satire. "We're all a pack of bloomin' asses—that's what we are. What in hell's the matter with us?"

While he was tying the horse to a tree, Hand appeared, silent, with an unfathomable disgust written on his countenance. As usual, he who was the least to blame came in for the hottest of the censure; and yet, there was a sort of fellowship indicated by Chamberlain's extraordinary arraignment of them both. He was scarcely known ever to have been profane, but at this moment he searched for wicked words and interspersed his speech with them recklessly, if not with skill. It is the duty of the historian to expurgate.

"I don't know just how you happen to be in this game," pronounced Chamberlain hotly, "but all I've got to say is you're an ass—an infernal ass."

Hand, rolling up his sleeves, remained silent.

"I suppose if you'd had a perfectly good million-dollar bank note, you'd have let it blow away—piff! right out of your hands!" he fumed. "Or the little deed of Mount Olympus—or a ticket to a front seat in the New Jerusalem. That's all it amounts to. Catch an eel, only to let him slip through your fingers—eh, you?"

Mr. Hand made no answer. Instead, he waded into the ditch-stream and placed a shoulder under the racing car. Chamberlain's instinct for doing his share of work caused him to roll up his trousers and wade in, shoulder to shoulder with Hand, even while he was lecturing on the feebleness of man's wits.

"Good horse running loose into barbed wire fences had to be caught, but it didn't need a squadron of men and a forty-acre lot to do it in. Might have known he'd give us the slip if he could—biggest rascal in Europe!" And so on. Chamberlain, usually rather a silent man, blew himself empty for once, conscious all the time that he, himself, was quite as much to blame as Hand could possibly have been. And Hand knew that he knew, but kept his counsel. Hand ought to be prime minister by this time.

When the racing car was righted, he went swiftly and skilfully to work investigating the damage and putting the machine in order, as far as possible. Chamberlain presently became impressed with his mechanical dexterity.

"By Jove, you can see into her, can't you?" Hand continued silent, and left it to his companion to put on the finishing verbal touches.

"Tow her home and fill her up and she'll be all right, eh?" said Chamberlain, but Hand kept on tinkering. The sudden neighing and plunging of Little Simon's peer tormented horse gave warning of the sheriff, crashing from the underbrush directly into the road.

He was voluble with excuses. The fugitive had escaped, leaving no traces of his flight. He might be in the woods, or he might have run to the railroad track and caught the freight that had just slowly passed. He might be in the next township, or he might be—

"Oh, go to thunder!" said Chamberlain.

To be continued

WISDOM WITH YEARS

He—Young girls always want to marry for love, but when they grow older they want to marry a man with money.

She—You're wrong. They don't grow older; they merely grow wiser.

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup."

Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effective and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Cloverport Churches

Baptist Church

Baptist Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. C. E. Lightfoot, Superintendent. Prayer Meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Baptist Aid Society meets Monday after Second Sunday every month. Mrs. A. B. Skilman, President. Preaching every Sunday at 11:00 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Rev. E. O. Coltrill, Pastor. Choir practice every Wednesday night after prayer meeting.

Methodist Church

Methodist Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. Ira D. Behen, Superintendent. Preaching every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. J. H. Walker, Pastor. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Epworth League, regular service Sunday 8:45 p. m.; business meeting first Tuesday night each month. Miss Margaret Burn, President. Ladies' Aid Society meets first Monday each month. Mrs. Forreast Lightfoot, President. Ladies' Missionary Society meets Second Sunday in every month. Mrs. Virgil Babbe, President. Choir practice Friday night 8:30 a. m. H. Murray, Director.

Presbyterian Church

Presbyterian Sunday School 9:45 a. m.—Conrad Slips, Superintendent. Preaching every Third Sunday. Rev. Adair, Minister. Prayer meeting Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Ladies' Aid Society meets Wednesday after Third Sunday every month. Mrs. Chas. Satterfield, President.

Catholic Church

First Sunday of each month, Mass, Sermon, and Benediction, 9:30 a. m., other three Sundays at 10:15 a. m. On week days Mass at 7:00 a. m. Catechetical instruction for the children on Saturdays at 8:30 a. m., and on Sundays at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

For Sale

I have on hand

All Kinds of Feed For Sale. Also Seed Oats

Prices right

O. W. Elmore & Sons

McQuady, Ky.

BALL & MILLER

ivery, Feed and Sale Stable

Bus Meets all Trains

Hardinsburg, : Ky

OVER 65 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsmen.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

Notice

That resolutions of respect are published at 5 cents per line. Please do not send obituaries to the News without expecting to pay for the publication of this kind of matter.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

Do you realize the fact that thousands of women are now using

Paxtine

A Soluble Antiseptic Powder

as a remedy for mucous membrane affections, such as sore throat, nasal or pelvic catarrh, inflammation or ulceration, caused by female ills? Women who have been cured say "It is worth its weight in gold." Dissolve in water and apply locally. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women.

For all hygienic and toilet uses it has no equal. Only 50c. a large box at Drug-gists or sent postpaid on receipt of price. The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

Notice to Those Who Write For The Breckenridge News

Persons who send articles to the Breckenridge News, kindly take pains to make them plain and on paper of reasonable size. Wrapping paper is not convenient to handle on a type case or desk. Always sign name.

Louisville Automobile Show

Exhibit of All Leading American Cars,
Motorcycles, Sundries, Accessories, Etc.

At the ARMORY MARCH 5, 6,
7 and 8

ELABORATE DECORATIONS ORCHESTRA CONCERTS

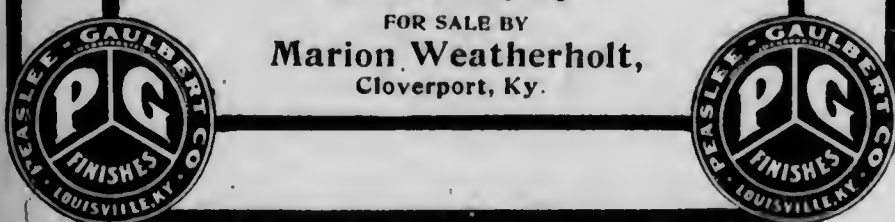

The Best Finish For Walls and Ceilings PEE-GEE FLATKOATT

The Sanitary, Durable, Flat Oil Finish

Suitable alike for private houses and public buildings. Most artistic, most beautiful, most economical, most satisfactory in every way. The plain directions on each can make it easy to apply with perfect success.

"Modern Method of Finishing Walls," our handsome book, tells all about PEE-GEE Flatkoatt and gives true-to-life color schemes and helpful suggestions. Free on request. Ask our dealer in your town for it.

Manufactured by Peaslee-Gaulbert Co. INCORPORATED
Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE BY
Marion Weatherholt,
Cloverport, Ky.

IN THE HEART OF
THE CITY

WALNUT
ST. BET.
FOURTH
& FIFTH

When in Louisville Stop at the Hotel Henry Watterson

ABSOLUTELY FIRE-PROOF—EUROPEAN PLAN ONLY

You could not stop in a more modern or homelike hostelry. At the Henry Watterson you'll find the most exacting Service, excellent Cuisine and elegantly furnished Rooms at very moderate prices.

The Cafe and Rathskeller are the "Showplaces" of Louisville.

ROOMS WITH LAVATORY AND PRIVATE TOILET, $1.50 per day
ROOMS WITH BATH $2.00 and $2.50 per day
SAMPLE ROOMS, WITH BATH $2.50 per day

For Reservations Address
HOTEL HENRY WATTERSON, Louisville, Ky.
GEO. SCHENCK, Asst. Mgr. ROBT. B. JONES, Manager.

HOTEL PATTON, Chattanooga, Tenn., and HOTEL ANSLBY (open May 1, 1913), Atlanta, Ga., under same management and ownership.

TIME WAS

When pictures were a luxury for the favored few—modern photography has changed conditions.

Our children are growing up, but we can keep them as they are—can follow them through school—can always be with them and have them with us in pictures.

We have new and attractive styles in school pictures.

Bra bandt, Photographer

WILL BE IN HARDINSBURG MARCH 7th AND 8th

The Breckenridge News and
The Louisville Daily Herald both 1 year $3.00

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M.
Soyer, Famous London Chef.

BAKING FAVORITE CAKES.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.
Paper bag cooking bakes cakes as much as it does meat or pastry. Please to keep this fact in mind. Also the fact that you should never try to make cakes at haphazard. Instead, take a day or several days off from bridge and shopping and give your whole mind to the matter in hand. Decide first what cakes you care to make, then reckon up what you will need to make them of. Many a good cake has been addended past all remedy through waiting at the wrong minute for some essential ingredient, overlooked in the general buying.

Never melt butter unless melted butter is specifically called for in your receipt. Set the butter crock outside the refrigerator for several hours before you need its contents—the kitchen temperature will make the butter just right for creaming. Keep eggs cool—they beat light the quicker for it. Always add a tiny pinch of salt to the whites in beginning to froth them—it makes the frothing easier and improves the taste. Eggs, it is needless to say, must be above suspicion. Sift flour and set it where it will get warm and dry without scorching, then sift it again before using it. Measure it after the second sifting, and if baking powder or soda and cream tartar are to be put in it, add them to the measured bulk, and sift a third time.

Cake must be beaten well, and thoroughly, if you want it firm, yet light, and of fine, close texture. Sweet milk helps to this fine texture. Sour milk or cream, contrarily, tends to a coarse, bubbly grain.

Prepare fruit over night, if possible, washing and drying it well.

Two such flavors as lemon and vanilla, vanilla and rose-water, or rose-water and almond, give to cake a tang as delicious as it is unusual. A spoonful of brandy or even a good corn whiskey, beaten well through the cake just before the flavoring—which should be put in the very last thing—will make the cake lighter, better colored, and of better keeping quality.

Sift spices through part of the flour, adding the sieved flour alternately with what is left plain. Always sift sugar, and more than once if it is clammy. Warning it gently helps to make light cake. It should be sifted afresh after the warming.

As I have said, paper bag cooking bakes cakes as much as it does meat or pastry. It can be done in the bags, but I advise using in conjunction with the bags either paper soufflé-cases or very thin tin moulds, square, oblong, or round, or cases made from the bags themselves.

To make a square paper-bag mould, split in half a bag of the largest size, crease each half gently all round about three inches from the cut edges, and fold up each corner neatly, clipping the folds firmly with two or even three clips. Brush over this mould liberally with soft butter, taking care to cover every fiber. Fill three parts with cake batter, then slip the loaded mould inside a big greased bag which rests upon a wire trivet. Seal the outer bag, taking care that it does not press down the empty upper edges of the mould inside, prick two or three small holes in its upper side, and set the trivet on the broiler in a very hot oven. Put on the shelf above it a shallow pan filled half way with boiling water, and on the floor underneath a pan with a little cold water. Close the oven door and leave for ten minutes. Take out the water pans then, and after two or three minutes sink heat one-half and finish baking. The time will, of course, depend on the size and kind of cake.

Paper bag baking is a little quicker, and ever so much more certain.

Small patty pans, or fancy-shaped muffin moulds, filled with cake batter and baked inside bags, will afford an almost infinite variety of ornamented good things.

(Copyright, 1911, by the Associated Literary Press.)

SWEETS FOR THE SWEET.

By Nicolas Soyer, Chef of Brocks' Club, London.

Beignets a la Portugaise: Wash well six ounces of Caroline rice, place it in a clean stew pan, adding four ounces of powdered sugar, two ounces of butter, half a stick of cinnamon and a strip of lemon peel or a very little grated rind of lemon. Allow the butter to melt, shaking the pan to avoid burning, then add a pint of milk. Cover closely and bring gently to the boil. Then draw the pan to the side of the fire and simmer slowly for rather more than a quarter of an hour, when the rice should have absorbed all the milk and be perfectly tender. Withdraw the pan from the fire and allow the mixture to cool a little. Then add the well-beaten yolks of three eggs and the whites, whisked to a firm froth with a tiny pinch of salt and a little lemon juice. Mix lightly, but very thoroughly, and then form into balls about the size of a small tangerine. Make an aperture in each as carefully as possible, and insert a small spoonful of either apricot jam or marmalade in the middle. Close up neatly, then dip in egg and breadcrumbs. Have ready a well-greased bag, put in the beignets, and cook for fifteen minutes. Take out and serve at once.

(Copyright, 1911, by Sturges & Walton Company.)

Cough, Cold Sore Throat

Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief for cough, cold, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, asthma, hay fever and bronchitis.

HERE'S PROOF.

Mr. ALBERT W. PAIR, of Fredonia, Kan., writes: "We use Sloan's Liniment in the family and find it an excellent relief for colds and hay fever attacks. It stops coughing and sneezing almost instantly."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

RELIEVED SORE THROAT.

Mrs. L. BROWN, of Modesto, Fla., writes: "I bought one bottle of your Liniment and it did me all the good in the world. My throat was very sore, and it cured me of my trouble."

GOOD FOR COLD AND CROUP.

Mr. W. H. STRAZER, 3721 Elmwood Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "A little boy next door had croup. I gave the mother Sloan's Liniment to try. She gave him three drops on sugar before going to bed, and he got up without the croup in the morning."

Price, 25c., 50c., $1.00

FOR GREATER SAFETY

RAILROAD EXPERT MAKES SOME RECOMMENDATIONS.

Especially Strong as to the Duties of the Flagman—Plain and Workable Rules, With Strict Enforcement, Asked For.

"There should be drastic and plain rules governing the conduct of flagmen. Under the most favorable circumstances of daylight and a straight track, they should be required to go back not less than 2,000 feet, and when signaled in and should invariably leave torpedoes on the track. Trains on the way would be slowed down in consequence, and trains waiting for the return of flagmen would be delayed in getting started again, but safety to life and property would be increased. Torpedoes are not always used, simply because it takes a little time to place them on the rail. The engineer has blown his whistle, the conductor is impatiently looking down the line and the flagman, catching the first note of the signal, beats it back as quickly as his legs will carry him. And death, in many instances, is thereby invited to take his sickle in hand and go to work."

"Summed up," Mr. Belnap went on to say, "the safety of travel depends fundamentally on a realization by railroad men, from the highest to the lowest, that they are the guardians of the lives of those who travel in their trains, and also of the lives of their comrades; next, on plain and workable rules, enforced to the letter with penalties attached for disobedience, not after the disaster, but before it happens, and lastly, on a reasonable reduction of speed, both of engines and of men."

"As I said at the start, much depends on the individual employee. Block signals should be on every American railroad, but they have to be worked in conjunction with men—with intelligent, alert, and conscientious men—otherwise they are of little value. It is natural, I suppose, for most people to oppose progress. If it were not so, we might go forward too fast and bring us trouble. The suggestions I have made with respect to safety may not be acceptable in some quarters, but they will be adopted finally, I believe. It was declared that railroads could not be operated if the law said no man—unless there were an accident on the line or some other act of God causing delay—should work for more than 16 hours continuously. I have been out on the road for 50 hours at a stretch without sleep or rest. I have seen flagmen doze standing up with lanterns in their hands. In the old days engineers often napped at their posts. But the 16-hour law came and it has actually been an economic benefit to the railroads themselves. In 1893 the number of tons carried by the railroads for each trainman was 5,085; in 1911, it was 8,946. Moreover, there has been an increase in the number of train miles run by each trainman employed."

(Copyright, 1911, by the Associated Literary Press.)

By Nicolas Soyer, Chef of Brocks' Club, London.

Beignets a la Portugaise: Wash well six ounces of Caroline rice, place it in a clean stew pan, adding four ounces of powdered sugar, two ounces of butter, half a stick of cinnamon and a strip of lemon peel or a very little grated rind of lemon. Allow the butter to melt, shaking the pan to avoid burning, then add a pint of milk. Cover closely and bring gently to the boil. Then draw the pan to the side of the fire and simmer slowly for rather more than a quarter of an hour, when the rice should have absorbed all the milk and be perfectly tender. Withdraw the pan from the fire and allow the mixture to cool a little. Then add the well-beaten yolks of three eggs and the whites, whisked to a firm froth with a tiny pinch of salt and a little lemon juice. Mix lightly, but very thoroughly, and then form into balls about the size of a small tangerine. Make an aperture in each as carefully as possible, and insert a small spoonful of either apricot jam or marmalade in the middle. Close up neatly, then dip in egg and breadcrumbs. Have ready a well-greased bag, put in the beignets, and cook for fifteen minutes. Take out and serve at once.

(Copyright, 1911, by Sturges & Walton Company.)

$3.50 Louisville Evening Post and Breckenridge News one year $3.50.

A FARM CHEAP AND WHY IT IS CHEAP!

FIRST—Because it is a good farm, fertile land, lays well, slightly rolling, does not wash; nearly every acre is tillable; it has southern exposure; it will produce crops from two to four weeks earlier than land lying on northern hill side.

SECOND—It is in the garden spot of Breckinridge county; land on all sides sells from $35 to $40 an acre.

THIRD—It is near the railroad.

FOURTH—It grows wheat, corn, tobacco, oats, cow peas clover, all kinds of grass.

FIFTH—It contains 300 acres and is cheap. It will produce in one year, if rightly farmed, nearly half its cost. Labor plentiful and cheap. Write

JNO. D. BABBAGE

Cloverport, Ky.

$4,200—Price $4,200

Buy Land and Make Money

Your easiest way to make money is to buy land in Breckinridge county. Western land has had its day. Old Kentucky is the ideal spot in all this country for climate, for good crops, for good living, for good people, and good, long life. Breckinridge county has better and cheaper facilities for reaching the markets—two railroads and the Ohio river. The people are prosperous and land is cheap. Now is your time to buy. Land has advanced from 25 to 50, per cent in the last ten years. In another ten years, land will leap another 50 per cent. Get in now while the start is cheap.

Clip out this entire advertisement, check the numbers that interest you, write your name and address and we will keep you in touch with our bargains.

Wanted—Small Farms

We have a number of inquiries for small farms from 50 to 100 acres, improved. If you have a small farm well improved, good level land, list it with us and we will do the rest.

No. 1. A Fine Home Farm

105 Acres, 3 miles from Irvington, on rural route. Good frame dwelling; 3 rooms and veranda; good barn 20x50; 3-room tenant house; 15 acres under plow; 100 acres grass; 25 acres in timber; well watered; clover and alfalfa. 30 to 40 bushels corn and 1200 pounds tobacco to acre. Good clover land ways way to level location. Ideal and in one of the best neighborhoods in the county. Price $4,200; cash. Terms on balance.

No. 2

30 acres 3 miles from railroad, near sample; one mile from school house.

No. 3

Good Stock Farm, 155 acres; well improved dwelling; stock barn; grows wheat, tobacco, corn, clover, and grass. 15 miles from Irvington, on rural route. This land is a little rolling but does not wash. Price right—Jno. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky.

No. 4

Beautifully located one mile from a live town, 100 acres practically all level land, unimproved; good fencing ideal spot for dairy farm. Price reasonable. Write Jno. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky.

No. 5

105 acres located near Dukes, Hancock county; 120 acres under plow; 25 acres in timber; well watered; plenty of fruit; a room dwelling; barn 40x60; 40 acres level, rest rolling. Good land for tobacco, corn, wheat and clover. It is a bargain at $1,500, $500 cash, balance easy payments.

No. 6

125 acres 1 mile South of Rockvale, good level land, 4 room dwelling, tenant house and necessary outbuildings. School house and church in 300 yards. Price $1,500 cash.

No. 8

Two tracts—100 acres in one and 125 acres in the other; 125 acres located 3 miles from Hardinsburg; 100 acres in land from Harlan; 1/4 mile of Kingswood college.

No. 9

150 acres; located on Henderson Route, 1 mile east of Lodi; 70 acres in pasture, 50 in timber; live-room dwelling; cow barn and out-buildings; well watered; fine stone land. Price $1,500.

No. 10

150 Acres, two miles from Harlan; 100 acres under plow; 25 acres in timber; 25 acres level; 25 acres rolling; good land for tobacco, corn, wheat and clover. It is a bargain at $1,500, $500 cash, balance easy payments.

No. 11

125 acres, good and level land, good barn; all land cleared, well located; 3 miles from Irvington. Price $3,300

No. 12

250 acres lying in a valley; 5 room dwelling and hall; 2 tenant houses, large tobacco barn; 25 miles South of Kirk, 1/4 mile from school, well watered, 2 springs near barn; on Rural Route.

No. 13

15 acres 1 mile East of Glen soil, watered by wells and springs, on good county road, near good school and churches. New tobacco barn built $1,200, 3 stock barns, good tenant houses, fine clover and grass land. Price $1,100.

No. 14

125 acres located 1 mile north of McQuady. Price $2,000. 1/4 cash balance in yearly payments.

No. 15

200 acres 1 1/4 miles from Harlan; level, rest rolling; soil sandy loam underlaid with clay; well watered. Price $4,000.

No. 16

20 Acres near Harlan. Dwelling; level, rest rolling; soil sandy loam underlaid with clay; well watered. Price $400.

No. 17

90 acres well improved land, one mile from Harlan; all level, good shape. Excellent neighborhood. Fine tobacco and corn land; well watered. Price $2,500.

No. 18

220 Acres, one mile from Harlan; water; 2 stock barns 30x50 and 30x45. Two-story dwelling, and tenant house. Price $4,750.

No. 19

Farm of 175 acres, 1 1/4 miles from Cloverport on Star Route; 140 acres under plow; good water; 3 room dwelling; two good barns for tobacco and stock. This is a bargain. Write Jno. D. Babbage for further particulars.

No. 20

108 acres at Floral, Hancock county, Ky., 8 miles West of Harlanville. Improvements—4 room dwelling; 1 barn 30x50; store house on the place, good stand for a store; good land for tobacco, corn and wheat. Price $1,550, 1/2 cash.

$3,300

140 acres, 2 miles from Guston, 3 miles from Irvington; well watered; lays well; good young orchard; good timber; on rural route; school house few yards from house; improvements; good four room dwelling with kitchen on back porch; two good barns; barn and tenant house and chicken back in the field; meat and hen house; wood shed; will sell on easy payments; plenty of small fruit. Further particulars at $3,300 Jno. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky.

$2,000

For 160 acres four miles west of Glendene, 3 miles from branch railroad; all fresh land; 100 acres in cultivation; 60 acres in grass; will produce the best corn, wheat and tobacco in neighborhood; plenty lasting water, well at door of dwelling; log dwelling, 3 rooms and side room; good stable; 3 tobacco barns; 3 tenant houses. Plenty of good timber for farm purposes; good land to clear. Price $2,000 1/2 cash.

For Sale

15 H. P.

F. M. WATKINS GAS OR GASOLINE ENGINE

This engine is in good condition; has been run about 4 years and is a bargain to anyone needing a stationary engine. Has all necessary pipes, gasoline tank which holds about 30 gallons; has detachable gasoline pump and a natural gas attachment. Reason for selling—entirely too large for my purpose. For further information call on or address

Jno. D. Babbage :: Cloverport, Ky.

Cumberland Telephone No. 46.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS TODAY

IRVINGTON NEWS

Mr. James Hardesty Dies of Pneumonia--News, Personal Items, Social and Society Paragraphs.

Mrs. Winfield Heudry and children returned home last week from a visit to Raymond.

Miss Evelyn Payne spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kemper, of Minot, N. D., was here last week. They left Tuesday afternoon for Big Spring to visit Ben Clarkson.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Geo. Bandy and children.

T. C. Matthews has moved his stable to the place previously occupied by J. B. Biggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell spent a few days of last week in Louisville.

Durwood Wroe spent Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Miss Laura Hale has returned home after a visit to friends at Chambers.

Mrs. R. B. McGlothlan, who is seriously ill with whooping cough, is unable to continue her school duties. This is Mrs. McGlothlan's third attack of this disease.

James Schindler left Saturday on a prospecting tour through the West. He expects to visit his brother, Joe Schindler, in Pond Creek, Okla.

Miss Nellie Smith left Saturday for Louisville to be the week end guest of Miss Mary Alexander.

Miss Essie Biggs has returned to her home in Louisville after a pleasant visit to Mrs. J. T. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Brown, of Lewistown, are visiting Mrs. Luther Wilson.

Mr. Jim Hardesty, aged 84 years, died at his home near town Friday night of pneumonia. His remains were interred at Mount Merino. His wife is ill with the same disease and is not expected to recover.

H. P. Coniff went to Louisville Saturday.

Miss B. Ada Drury, of Louisville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. B. McGlothlan.

The little Misses Livers, of Basin Springs, visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schindler, last week.

Miss Lorena Selzer was tendered a delightful surprise party Saturday evening by her friends, the occasion being her thirteenth birthday. She received a number of nice gifts. Delightful refreshments were served.

Dr. W. B. Taylor and E. A. Reese went to Louisville last week.

Dr. Lex, of Hardinsburg, was in our midst Saturday evening.

Last Saturday being the anniversary of the birth of Washington everyone seemed enthused to be allowed the privilege of celebrating this grand and glorious day. The whole atmosphere seemed redolent of his principles; the rocks and vales seemed to shout his praises. The good, the bad, the learned and the unlearned, felt that the fame of Washington was a treasure common to them all. It is exhilarating to recount his deeds, ponder over his principles and teachings, and we Americans are proud of this character and feel honored to let our flags float in the balmy air in memory of "The Father of our Country," and we look up and breathe one word--Washington.

The Housekeepers League will meet with Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain Thursday at 2 p. m. The subject will be "Modern Cookery."

Bro. Jones spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Herndon.

Edward Morrison was in Cloverport several days last week.

S. B. Payne attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Marshall, who died in Hardinsburg Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morrison, of Louisville, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Morrison.

School was dismissed Thursday evening in order that Prof. C. A. Tanner could attend the Fourth Congressional District High School Oratorical Contest which was held in Elizabethtown. Prof. Tanner was one of the judges. J. H. Watkins, of the Leitchfield school, carried off first honors. His subject was "Kentucky in the Limestone."

Boyd Keith, of Bewleyville, spent Sunday with Morris Cain.

Lee Hendricks went to Webster Saturday night.

Miss Johnnie Moorman, of Glen Dean, will arrive this week to be the guest of Miss Elizabeth Crider.

Moorman Ditto, of Hardinsburg, was calling on friends Sunday.

We regret to learn of the illness of Finis Claycomb.

Mrs. Harry Bell, of Guston, visited Mrs. Albert Ashcraft last week.

Mrs. James Smith spent Sunday with Mrs. Larue Cox.

$3.50 Louisville Evening Post and Breckenridge News one year $3.50.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

E 57 Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

UNION STAR.

Preston Eskridge, of Sample, who is attending school in New Albany, was the guest of Miss Mayme Cart Saturday afternoon.

Miss Sarah E. Richardson was in Louisville several days last week.

Miss Nannie A. Hall is in Louisville visiting friends.

Dr. D. B. Beeler, of Louisville, was here Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Virginia Whitworth entertained a number of friends Wednesday.

D. B. Lawson, of Hawesville, was the guest of Miss Maggie Cart Sunday.

Percy Beard, of Hardinsburg, was the guest of D. S. Richardson Sunday.

The revival at Shiloh is progressing nicely under the management of Rev. Duggins and Rev. Lennon.

Miss Mabel Shellman was hostess to a delightful party Saturday evening.

The Junior Sunday School class and its teacher, Miss Pink Ricketts, gave an entertainment Saturday afternoon at the home of the latter, which was enjoyed by all present.

BIG SPRING.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Prather left Thursday for Indiana where they have gone to live. We wish them lots of success in their new home.

We had a good prayer meeting Wednesday night. Hope to have better in the future.

C. C. Martin went to Louisville this week.

Miss Edna Dowell of Louisville, spent Monday with her parents. She has quite a lucrative position in the city.

W. T. Griffin has been in Owensboro for the past week visiting his brother and other relatives.

Frank Hill is in Louisville where he has gone to be operated on for appendicitis.

Ben Clarkson had a big mule sale last Saturday.

Winfield Scott has rented the Jackson place and has gone to farming.

Miss Perl Collins is at home for a few days.

Three ice houses were filled in town this winter.

LODIBURG NEWS

Mr. Hardin Wants Mr. Ater For County Superintendent Of Schools--Many Personals.

Miss Dossie Adkisson, of Rhodella, is the guest of Miss Allie Keys this week. Harrison Ashcraft, of Rhodella, was the guest of Miss Vinla Curry, of Garfield, Sunday.

Ell Johnson and children were the guests of his sister, Mrs. Grayson Payne, Sunday.

Wallace Parks and Miss Lucile Parr are attending the Normal at Harned.

Otice Severs, of Union Star, was the guest of Miss Velma Bruner Sunday.

J. Dutschke, of Holt, was visiting his niece, Mrs. Ida Nottingham, Sunday.

Misses Mattie and Susie Black, of Addison, are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Miss Gertrude Murphy, of Brandenburg, came down Sunday to be the guest of friends at Raymond this week.

Paul E. Kroush and Hobert Keys were guests of their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Basham, of Union Star, Sunday.

Miss Velma Bruner was in Brandenburg Friday shopping.

Nath Basham, of West Virginir, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jess Payne, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bandy have moved to Lodiburg. Welcome, Allen, we are glad to have you with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Payne and daughter, Miss Mary Carlton, of Webster, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Payne Saturday and Sunday.

Huett Gibson, of Hardinsburg, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gibson, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ida Belle Ater, of Irvington, was the guest of friends here last Saturday.

Adam Besham has bought of Flake Ater the small tract of land joining B. F. Hardin and Grayson Payne. Consideration $350.

Dora Murphy, who has been in Arkansas for the past year, returned home last week.

W. B. Argabright was in Sample Sunday.

Henry Cashman, Bob Cashman, Will Shelman, Crafton Cashman and A. M. Hardin weigh 1030 lbs. To see these five together they look big.

My hat is off for Prof. H. A. Ater for school superintendent. There is not a man in Breckenridge better qualified

DR. P. W. FOOTE'S Dispersion Sale of Jersey Cattle

In the Town of Irvington, Ky., on

Saturday, March 1, 1913

At 1 O'Clock p. m.

WITH intention of engaging more extensively in the breeding of Horses and Mules, I have decided to sell this pioneer herd of Jersey cattle, the pride of my life, and the result of 20 years' experience in breeding, feeding and developing. Beginning with their Great-Great-Grand-dams, and extending through the succeeding generations, my experience, skill and judgment in breeding and handling dairy cows that could make good at the pail, finds its zenith in this splendid collection. Founded by the purchase of a grandson of Imported Tormentor, my first calves developed into dairy cows of high rank. The herd was next headed with a son of the "King of St. Lambert," one of the world's great Jersey sires; when my herd numbered 25 their average butter production per year was 315 pounds. The Scales and Babcock milk test was used regularly to determine individual production, and cows making less than 300 pounds of butter per year were quickly disposed of. Hence each of these heifers comes from a tested mother and may be fully relied upon to make a good cow—a cow of strong constitution and persistent milk givers and produce 8 to 14 pounds of butter per week when mature. Never again will you have an opportunity to buy a fine, young Jersey cow in the class these belong. Kind in disposition, young, sound and free from blemishes and defects so far as known. Some now fresh, all the rest to calve in a few weeks. Every animal will be sold if there is more than one bid made, title passing when knocked off. TERMS—8 months for bankable note, or usual discount for cash.

THESE SELL:

Herd No. 19

Topsy Torment, 3-years-old, large and of pronounced dairy type; solid fawn with small star in face; soon to be fresh.

Herd No. 23

Tormentor's Pet, 4-years-old, had 1 calf; solid orange fawn; extra large and smooth; now making bag.

Herd No. 27

Uneda St. Lambert, 2-years-old, soon be fresh; ideal type and splendidly marked.

Herd No. 30

King's Idol, hardly 2-years-old; bound to make a great cow or all signs fail; have calf in March.

Herd No. 33

Golden Seal, 2½-years-old; orange fawn; large and fine and out of a noble cow; don't let her slip away from you; soon fresh.

Herd No. 31

Lucy, coming 2-years-old; soon fresh; this heifer is worth $100 or I don't know cows.

Herd No. 99

Brilliant Lady, 2-years-old; a mulberry fawn with white markings; nice heifer calf 3 weeks old at side that is sired by D. C. Heron's registered bull; this young cow is in high society, gentle and easy milker and rich testing.

Herd No. 125

Lassie, 3-years-old; dark fawn shading to almost black; 5 weeks bull calf at side and both full stock and eligible to registration; cow bred and raised by Mr. D. C. Heron, but practically my own breeding, her dam by my St. Lambert bull; a great cow, every line a dairy line; I stand back of this cow and assert that she is extra in everything that makes the breed famous and first. This is her second calf.

Herd No. 25

St. Lambert's Joy, 7 years-old; been in milk more than a year and kept for a winter-time cow; near 2 gallons a day of 6 per cent test; an all the year cow; calve in September.

Herd No. 13

King of Kings, bull 18 months-old; dark fawn and a magnificent calf; St. Lambert's type from nose to tail; fit to head any herd.

DR. P. W. FOOTE

for the place. And there is not a better man in the county.

Frank Miller is on the sick list.

STEPHENSPOET.

Mrs. S. H. Dix, Uncle Berry Basham and little Sallie Bell are on the sick list.

Yandell Sargent has returned to Owensboro.

Miss Lelia B. Hawkins closed a very successful term of school at Chenault last week. She will enter the Normal at Bowling Green in two weeks.

Mrs. W. J. Schopp has returned from Louisville where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Geo. Driskell is very ill at this writing.

Twenty-one Candles.

Stephensport, Feb. 25.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hawkins entertained Saturday night, February 22, at their home in honor of their son, Jamie Owen, it being his twenty-first birthday. He received many nice and useful presents. The house was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue. A delicious lunch was served in the dining room, and a handsome cake, on which twenty-one candles were burning, was a beautiful ornament to the table. The guests enjoyed the evening thoroughly and disbanded at a late hour.

Fine Perchon Stock.

Dr. P. W. Foote was in Lexington last week and purchased a fine young Perchon stallion, Commanche Chief, registered No. 63416. Three fine young Perchon mares and a registered jack of the Taxpayer family of Tennessee. This stock has been secured at great expense and will be at the service of the public for breeding Perchon type of horses and the best type of mules. Dr. Foote will give his attention to raising horses and mules suitable for heavy farming.

Big Reduction Sale

To avoid carrying over any old stock we are offering some unequalled prices on a large line of goods this week. Get a hustle on yourself or you will miss some of these bargains.

CLOTHING

Overcoats, Suits and Clothing at One-half regular price. Winter Underwear will be sold at actual cost.

SHOES

Every pair of Shoes in the house to go at 10 per cent off the regular price. Big bargains in RUBBERS.

We have everything you need from the cradle to the grave, and the things you need now will be sold during this sale. We're going to make things "hum" for the next few days.

Grass Seed, Clover Seed and all Kinds of Garden and Field Seeds

Furniture and Stoves at Saving Prices during this sale; Come Early and get your choice

Highest market prices for all kinds of country produce.

JEFF D. OWEN,

::

Glen Dean, Ky.

Agent for Hanna's Green Seal Paint